That an Order of the House do issue for copies of all documents, application forms, photographs and letters leading to the issuance of passports to both Yves Geoffroy (or in his alias name, if any) and Carmen Parent.

Mr. Paul St. Pierre (Parliamentary Secretary to Secretary of State for External Affairs): Mr. Speaker, unfortunately the documents asked for in this notice of motion pertain to a matter that is still sub judice. I suggest that in the circumstances the hon. member might wish to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Woolliams: Mr. Speaker, I wonder whether the motion could stand until the court case is over. It must have been pending for a considerable length of time because the Geoffroy incident and his return occurred some time ago. I ask that the motion stand and, when the court case is over, I am sure the government will bring forward the documents.

Mr. Speaker: Shall the motion stand?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Motion stands.
