Dear Sir Arthur:-

You have no doubt read with interest the institution of the Chivalric Order, Knights Crusaders of Canada, and it is to discuss matters pertaining to this Order, that I address you.

We Old Veterans are very much interested in the life and progress of our Old Corps Commander, and we feel that his success is also our success, so wrapt up are we in the great days of the past when we all stood on common ground as soldiers of His Majesty the King. Therefore, Sir, let me on behalf of the Order wish you continued success and good health.

Perhaps, if you will bear with me, it would not be amiss if I would briefly explain just here, the aims, objects and tennents of the Order. As you know the Order of Crusaders was formed first in England in memory of the Unknown Soldier, who rests in all honour in Westminster Abbey, and is the first Knight Grand Commander of the Order.

In Canada the Order is established for the self same purpose as in the Old Land, with differences only as dictated by the internal conditions of the two countries. The Order is a Secret, Fraternal, Patriotic, non-sectarian Christian Order, to which only
