THE WORK which forms the greatest Part of the ensuing Collection is entitled, in the Original, Lettres édifiantes & curieuses, écrites des Missions étrangères, par quelques Missionnaires de la Compagnie de Jesus *. The Rise of the Missions which gave Occasion to this Correspondence, is set forth at large by the late Father le Gobien, in his Dedication of the first Volume of these Letters to the Jesuits of France, the most essential Parts of which Dedication are given hereunder †.

* That is : Letters concerning the Conversions of Heathens, &c. intermixed with a great Variety of Subjects relating to Literature and the Sciences : Written, from the foreign Missions, by some Jesuit-Missionaries. It was necessary for me to translate the Title in this Manner, in order to give the Reader an Idea of the full Extent of it.

† To the JESUITS of FRANCE.

Reverend Fathers,

I HERE communicate to you some Letters, lately received from our Fathers in Cbina, and in our other East-Indian Missions.
