ALD. ANDERSON IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Despite Petitions and Persuasion—Private Practice Needs Attention.

LOTS TO CHOOSE FROM

Ryding a Wright Much Approved Of—Other Ward Seven News.

A petition is being widely circulated in Ward Seven asking Ald. A. J. Anderson to reconsider his decision to resign from municipal work and remain in council for another year as alderman for this ward. A similar petition last year was presented after he had announced his intention of withdrawing, and he consented to once more become a candidate, but since then he has moved, and now resides in Ward six. His announcement that he would not be a candidate this year was issued nearly a month ago, and was made so final that it is hardly likely the alderman will again become a candidate, especially as his withdrawal has been the reason for the coming forward of nine prospective candidates.

Ald. A. J. Anderson has represented Ward Seven since its annexation to the city, and during his long term in their service the citizens of the west end have found him always worthy of their confidence. Before annexation he was city solicitor for West Toronto, but since that time his private law practice has grown so large that he cannot neglect it. It is on this account that Ald. Anderson is retiring, and he retires with a record such as few members of council can claim.

Another Also Faithful.

He is, however, survived by his colleague of the last two years, Ald. Sam Ryding. While perhaps not so much of an orator as his friend in council, Mr. Ryding has, nevertheless, faithfully served Ward Seven during the time he has been their representative. When elected, he retired from business in order to give his whole time to his municipal duties, and since that time no complaint sent to him was ever left unheeded. It was thru his intercession that the residential sections were given relief from the dust nuisance last summer. He was particularly energetic in striving to abolish the evil smells which used to drift down over Ward Seven, and several times he had inspectors from the medical health department sent out when the officials at the city hall refused to act. The sewer construction in this ward was also given considerable attention by Ald. Ryding, and the work rushed as much as possible during the past year, altho the many dangerous cave-ins have shown the difficulty of the task.

A Thinking Ticket.

In the event of Ald. Anderson's refusing to run, considerable conjecture is known as to who his successor will be. Of the nine new candidates who have come forward, the man who seems best prepared to hold his own for Ward Seven in council during the coming year, when an energetic worker, a fearless, fluent speaker, of municipal experience is urgently needed, is Jesse G. Wright, a well-known man in West Toronto since his early day. Ald. Ryding and J. G. Wright seem to be the thinking citizens' ticket for 1914.

School Additions.

Toronto Junction Council, R. T. of T., entertained the Mimico Council in St. James' Hall last night. An excellent musical program was rendered by the members of the local lodge, and refreshments closed a most enjoyable evening.

Two Ward Seven schools are having new additions built to them. A north wing is being added to the Western Avenue School, costing about $25,000, and a $20,000 brick addition is in process of construction at the Strathcona School, St. John's road.

AURORA.

The Aurora Dramatic Club, under the auspices of the Public Library Board, gave the well-known drama of East Lynne before a crowded house, in aid of the Mechanics' Hall on Wednesday night. This is the first time that Aurora talent has launched out into drama. The acting of all was free from that stiffness so noticeable in amateurs, and the presentation was all that could be desired. The scenery was painted by Charles Tyrell, and consisted of a street scene, a forest and a room interior. Thos. Scrivener as Sir Francis Levison made a dyed in the wool villain with a very suave expression of goodness. Miss Mary E. Taylor as Lady Mabel was both pathetic and sincere. A. R. Green as Archibald Carlyle brought out the good characteristics of the play. Barbara Hare was excellently portrayed by Mies Viola S. Brownlee, who quite naturally gave brightness to the charitable side of life. R. N. Bell had quite a professional makeup as Mr. Dill, and his acting was in keeping with his makeup, being humorous without being ridiculous. The others taking part were: Mr. Burwell Charles, who faithfully portrayed Justice Hare; Mr. Burwell Charles, who faithfully portrayed Justice Hare; H. P. O'Shea as Richard Hare, Miss Hazel A. Griffiths as Joyce, Miss Rose McNevin as Miss Carlyle, Miss Bernice McCharles as Wilson, F. Kehoe an officer and John G. McDonald as Lord Mount Severn, the aristocratic relative of Lady Isabel. A local orchestra played between the acts and thruout the arrangements and presentation were very creditable, a fact which was not unappreciated by the audience.

His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto on Tuesday evening consecrated the new pipe organ, which has been recently installed in Trinity Church and based the subject of his remarks on the words in the Cantate Domino, "Praise the Lord upon the harp, sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving, with trumpets also and show yourself before the Lord the King."

The new organ is a tubular pneumatic instrument of the most modern construction with a fine rich tone.

BRAMPTON.

The death occurred last night of Mrs. Elizabeth Mairland at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. S. McDonald, Main street south. She had resided in Brampton for the past two years, and was in her 84th year. The remains will be taken to Grimsby for interment in Queen's Lawn Cemetery.

Another octogenarian passed away last night after a short illness, in the person Peel County. An aged husband, two maiden name was Eliza Jane Leary, and she had spent the most of her life in Peel County. An aged husband, two daughters and one son survive. Mr. Herbert Watson of Snelgrove, Mrs. Walker of Malton and Miss Jessie Watson at home.

To offset the Peel Business Men's Association, who are fighting against local option, the temperance people have circulated a petition among the merchants and employers of labor of Brampton. Fifty-seven signatures have been affixed testifying to the efficacy of local option, and that they will work for the passing of the bylaw. Owing to the unexpected turn in the affairs, the outlook is bright for an overwhelming majority for local option.

WILL SCARBORO BE WET OR DRY?

Keenest Fight in Years Now on—Scrutineers Are Appointed.

NO NEW CANDIDATES

Looks Like Acclamation for Reeve Cornell—Three New Schools.

The local option fight in Scarboro promises to be one of the keenest contests in the history of the township. Both parties are very active, and canvassers are busy thruout the district. Scrutineers representing both sides were appointed yesterday.

No new candidates for council have been announced as yet, and there is a general impression that Reeve J. G. Cornell will be re-elected, for another year by acclamation. All the councillors, in fact, seems to have the entire confidence of the electors. Nomination day may bring a few surprises, of course, but so far the local option issue has overshadowed all election interests.

Christmas Concert.

The annual concert and Christmas entertainment in connection with Grace Church, Scarboro Village, will take place in the schoolhouse on Friday evening, Dec. 26. There will be a Christmas tree and an appropriate musical program.

Three new schools are rapidly approaching completion in the township, No. 9 will be opened on Dec. 31, when an old pupils' reunion and social gathering will be held.

The other new schools are No. 14, at Agincourt, a four-roomed school, and No. 12, on the Danforth road, near the city limits, which has two rooms.

TOWNSHIP ISSUES FREELY DISCUSSED

At Cedarvale Last Night Water Supply and Hydro Main Topics.

RESIDENTS IMPATIENT

Reeve Says City Must Give Water or Township Get Legislation.

"My idea is to get legislation to make the city supply water to the suburban districts. We are not asking something for nothing, and there is no doubt the city creates the conditions that exist in these districts, and it should do all that is possibleto help the people in this condition."

Water supply was the main theme of Reeve Syme's speeche to the Progressive Ratepayers' Association of Little York last night, which he attended, with Deputy Reeve Miller and Councillor Graham, to hear the complaints, which were many, from the ratepayers.

He said: "You all know my attitude to the water and statute labor questions, so I think the best thing to do will be to answer any questions with regard to this section."

Rates Exorbitant.

In replying to one question, he said that if the city refuses to supply water, then the township would have to.

"In my five years' experience on the council, I have found out that the city ignores the township in a way that does not do it credit," he said. Answering a question on the amount of money spent on charity, he stated that he considered seven dollars a week for a child in the Sick Children's Hospital exorbitant. Under present conditions, a child is placed in the hospital, if the parents are unable, or say they are unable, to pay this rate, at the expense of the township, and the reeve thought it should be left to the discretion of the council whether the child should be admitted at expense of the municipality or not.

Hydro-Electric Again.

Much discussion followed an enquiry by Mr. Crombie as to whether the council had a contract with the hydro to light all streets in the district or just Cedarvale avenue. The reeve explained that no contract had been with the electric Light Commission, but the petition which the ratepayers had sent in to the council was forwarded to the hydro, who agreed to light the streets. Only Cedarvale avenue has been attended to, altho poles are erected and wires strung on all the other streets mentioned in the petition. This was due mainly to the fact that there was not enough business to warrant the lights on the other streets. Also the cost would be greater than the council had agreed upon. "We want to get light for these districts around the city," continued Reeve Syme, "but we can only do business with the hydro. If I am elected for the council next year, Iam going to submit a bylaw to the people asking that we be given the power to deal with another company, as the hydro does not give us a fair deal."

In summing up he said that the reason for many of the difficulties met with by the township lay in the fact that a township adjoining the city had the same legislation for carrying on its work as a small township in Muskoka, where no suburban problems existed.

Cedarvale Attended To.

Councillor Graham stated that Cedarvale was not overlooked by the council, more money having been spent in the district during the past year than in any other.

President Jennings wante dto know if the councillor was in favor of a sectionman for Cedarvale, to which Mr. Graham answered that provided the commissioner thought there was enough work to keep one he would certainly use what influence he had to get one for the district.

Deputy Reeve Miller spoke briefly on the work done by the council during the past year.

The chair was occupied by President Jennings.

ETOBICOKE TOWNSHIP.

The Etobicoke Township Council will meet today to conclude the year's business and deal with the treasurer's annual statement.

A Farmers' Club has been organized in Etobicoke, and the following officers appointed: President, J. S. Ross, Streetsville; vice-president, F. Jackson, Meadowvale; secretary-treasurer J. D. A constitution and bylaws have been adopted, and the winter's program is under consideration.

EARLSCOURT NOW HAS A LIBRARY

Mayor Hocken Presided at Formal Opening Ceremony Last Night.

OLD COUNTRY PAPERS

As Well as Magazines Will Be Made a Feature of Branch.

The new branch library at Earlscourt was formally opened last night by Mayor Hocken. The library board was represented by Chairman Self, Thos. Caswell, T. W. Banton and Dr. Locke, the chief librarian, and many of the local clergy were present, including Rev. Peter Bryce, Rev. H. Read, Rev. J. L. Macleod, President Parfrey represented the B.I.A., and S. W. Lord the District Voters' Association.

Mayor Hocken congratulated the library board on their latest steps in the good work they were doing for the people of Toronto. He was sure the new library would be a boon to the district and was amazed at the transformations that had taken place in the old church hall. The mayor referred to his own experience as a boy when books were not so easily obtained as today, when public ownership brought many benefits to the people.

Mr. Self, who was chairman, said that five years ago there were only two libraries in Toronto, but there was now thirteen, altho the Toronto Library Board received less money in proportion to the work done than any other library board in any city in Canada. Library boards were really entitled to half a mill on the dollar, but the Toronto Library Board only received a quarter of a mill, and the good results in this city had only been obtained by good management.

Dr. Locke said that the management would do for Earlscourt what had been done for the other sections of the city. Each locality had its own problems which had to be locally discussed in order that the best results might be obtained.

Old Country Papers.

He promises that a good selection of old country papers and magazines would always be available, and a wide range of books on all subjects supplied.

Other speakers were T. W. Banton, Rev. Mr. Bryce, Rev. Mr. Read, Rev. Mr. Macleod, President Parfrey of the B.I.A., and S. W. Lord of the E.D.V.A.

The library will be open for registration purposes for three days and books may be taken out on Friday.

York Township.

An old resident of the 3rd Concession, York Township, Francis Brock, passed away in Toronto yesterday at his son's house, 282 Withrow avenue. He was 76 years of age.

The funeral takes place to Mount Pleasant Cemetery at 2 p.m. today.

MAPLE.

The young folks had a great time last night in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The long program was carried out in great style. J. T. Winchester's illustrated lecture on "Ben Hur" was much enjoyed by everyone.
