Officers Carried Out Personal Ideas and Were Complimented.

Cedarvale district was awakened bout 10 o'clock last night by the and of heavy rifle fire. Two armies were attacking a strong position of enemy from different directions. the 20th Battalion attacked from the while the 19th arrived from the cuth, both parties arriving on the simultaneously. Not a shot was ed by the attacking parties, so that was impossible for the defenders to rtain in which direction they could ect the attack. When arriving both scking parties were met by out-The leading company of the ating forces quickly quieted them the men continued on the advance ot a sound was heard by the enemy the forces were close. Then they were quickly overpowered at the it of the payonet. Bickford expressed himself a very pleased with the way in which his campaign had been carried out, reviously he had led the attacking arties, giving his officers their inructions, but last night each officer allowed to carry his campaign on his own initiative, giving his own orders and making his own attack.

Really Very Good.

Gen. Lessard inspected 642 men of he Fourth Mounted Rifles at the Exhibition Park -sterday morning. He stated that the regiment was "re-ily very good indeed," and expressed the opinion that they would do con-iderable credit to themselves when in

By the end of this week Gen, Les-ard will have completed his inspec-tion of the second contingent. He has still quite a number of the Mounted silfes who are not attached to any contingent. When this work is finished the general will start on a tour of aspection of the third contingent. The second contingent is an excep-ionally fine body of men," Gen. Les-ard stated. "The resruits have been plendidly selected, while the officers are of a particularly good class."
