

Honor for a Young Canadian.

At a recent meeting of the medical Board of the Mater Misericordias Hospital, Dublin, a number of gentlemen were appointed as residents pupils for the next six months. First on the list is the name of Mr. James Devine B. A. This young doctor is a son of the late Thomas Devine, Deputy Surveyor General for Ontario, and was formerly a resident of Toronto.

House of Providence.

Archbishop Walsh will lay the cornerstone of the new wing of the House of Providence at the annual picnic of that institution on Friday next. The ceremony will be an interesting one. The committee also offer an extensive programme, including police games, two exhibitions of high wire walking by the famous Clifford Calverley, and a Ferris wheel run by electricity. The picnic should be well patronized.

Obituary.

On April 30th last there died at her residence on Jarvis St. Mrs. Annie Keilty, beloved wife of M. Keilty, District Deputy of the C. M. B. A. and storekeeper at the asylum of the insane. Deceased was the second daughter of the late John J. Hughes of Niagara Falls, a relative of the great Archbishop Hughes of New York. The illness which culminated in death was of more than two years duration. Mrs. Keilty had spent some months at St. Augustine, Florida, during the winter. Warned by a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, she returned to her home. Mrs. Keilty was a member of the Confraternity of the Holy Family, the altar society and the Sacred Heart League, and was zealous worker in all affairs of the Cathedral parish. During her illness she was constantly attended by the sisters of St. Joseph. The funeral was from St. Michael's Cathedral, where requiem high Mass was celebrated by Father Ryan assisted by Fathers Hand and Minehan. Fathers McCann and Brennan were also present. Mr. Keilty has the sincere sympathy of the REGISTER in his bereavement.

Presentation to Father McMennamin.

On Sunday last, May 19th, just before Mass was celebrated, several members of St. Mary's congregation at Simcoe gathered around the railing and presented their good and pious priest, Father McMennamin, with a richly embossed address, a beautiful set of white vestments and a very valuable stole. An address was read by W. E. Kelly, barrister of the Town.

The address spoke feelingly of the good will borne by the people toward their pastor and his untiring fidelity and devotion to them and prayed that he might long be spared to them. It was signed on behalf of the congregation by John O'Heron, G. L. Goodrow, Herbert Wood, A. H. Mabce, W. E. Kelly, James Smith, D. O'Mahoney, M. J. O'Donnell, J. C. O'Neil, Mrs. Goodrow, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Mabce, Mrs. Euid, Mrs. Chanda, Mrs. Kavanagh, Mrs. O'Neil; and was suitably replied to by the good Father who thanked all very cordially for the good words which the address contained and the worthy presents given him. He earnestly hoped to remain long in Simcoe among the people he had learned to love, and wear with pleasure and pride the gifts of his good and devoted people. The address be would always treasure as the expression of the mutual esteem and harmony of the people whose souls are dearer to him than all this world's wealth.

St. PAUL'S MISSION, CHOTEAU CO., MONT., Dec. 12, '00. Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is wonderful in checking asthma or any nervous diseases caused by nervous debility or over exertion. Three children of my school had falling sickness, the use of the Tonic stopped the paroxysms at once and cured them. In all cases of weakness it strengthens the system without fail.
