

OF THE ROYAL

extensive."—Monthly Review.

dition to the general reader's an."—Literary Gazette.

ven in the briefest and clearest g seal that deserves to be reid completely written compen-he author."—Edinburgh Review.

—Literary Gazette.

ch goes in this packet, I shall e undertaking. If any man is, ork as it ought to be executed, valled; his industry cannot be erted man; and his principles y (dated Keswick, March 21, er things are to be expected ame year) b. Mr. Frebendary ith his vast attainments, mine as Rose, Principal of King's

Durham.

perhaps, by some noble Man,
nk in society, might be added;
ght be enough. A breach above extracts is sanctioned.

circumstances compelled Dr.