

A FEW THOUGHTS FOR THE ELECTORS OF STORMONT.

What is Samuel Ault? What has Samuel Ault done for Stormont during the last seven years he has been in Parliament?

Samuel Ault, who now seeks your suffrage, is what one of the Members called strictly a Ministerial Man, the political charlatan of the whole House, and votes with every party as long as it is in power!

Samuel Ault is Whig, Tory, or Reformer, as the party in power happens to smile upon him!

Samuel Ault is the man who supported the Reform Party and denounced John A. Macdonald and Galt while out of power, and turned round and opposed the very Reform Party the moment John A. and Galt came into power again.

Samuel Ault is the shifty politician who is everything to every one, as it suits his purpose.

Samuel Ault is the man who denounced the Intercolonial Railway and the Amalgamation of the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway with the Grand Trunk prior to 1864, and who wheeled round and supported those measures for a paltry consideration.

Samuel Ault is the man who voted for 8 and 10 per cent. when 6 was proposed.

Samuel Ault is the man reported to be taken in at the back door of the House in Quebec to pledge himself to John A. Macdonald, and who, after pledging himself, came out and voted against John A. through the influence of George Brown and J. S. Macdonald.

Samuel Ault is the man who voted for increasing the duties on Teas, Sugars, Cottons, Molasses, and Tobacco, to the enormous extent they are at present.

Samuel Ault is the man who voted to have your watch-dogs taxed, and would vote for a tax on your cats if the party in power would ask him.

Samuel Ault is the man who voted to spend half-a-million dollars on the Ottawa Buildings, when two and a-half was already spent, out of the pockets of Upper Canadians, and allow the Lower Provinces to pay nothing.

Samuel Ault is the man who goes for every measure he is told, to the detriment of the farming and mechanical interests, to fill the pockets of a few "pets."

Samuel Ault is the man who has made a laughing-stock of Stormont in the Legislature.

Samuel Ault is the man of monosyllables, who was hoisted down on the floor of the House when he attempted to open his mouth, and who never dare let his voice be heard since in the Halls of the Assembly.

Samuel Ault is the man who has the audacity and meanness to try and hoodwink the Electors of Stormont to send him back to Parliament to be made a tool of and be laughed at.

Independent Electors of Stormont, one and all, Tory and Reformer: this pliable politician offers himself as your candidate for the House of Commons, and will not pledge himself to support the Government, so that he can have a hole to creep out of at any time.

Will you trust him? Can you trust him after what you know of his past conduct? Do you think him worthy to represent the old constituency of Stormont that has had so many men of talent on the floor of the House of Parliament of Canada.

Therefore, it remains to be seen whether you will consent to place the fate of our country in such unsafe and quibbling hands.

AN ELECTOR.
