

89. A Cadet will be liable to be examined at the annual examination of any Term, upon any part of each subject of the course of instruction of his present or previous classes, whether obligatory or voluntary.

(a.) The section of the back course of previous classes in which he will be examined will be notified about three months before the examination.

90. Intermediate examinations may also be held during the Term, the marks obtained at which will be amalgamated with those awarded at the annual examinations.

91. When any subject of instruction is divided into obligatory and voluntary sections, the intermediate examination will be on the obligatory sections only.

92. For voluntary subjects a Cadet in any class may elect to be examined in any section of the same subject allotted to a lower class instead of that for voluntary work of that subject belonging to his own class, provided that he has not previously qualified in that section.

(a.) A Cadet must notify his intention to be examined in a paper belonging to a class lower than his own at least three months before the date of examination.

93. When two or more subjects are alternative as obligatory or voluntary for examination, a Cadet intending to take up both subjects must notify to the Instructor at the commencement of the Term which subject he desires to select as obligatory.

94. A Cadet desiring to study any voluntary subject must notify his wish to do so to the Commandant within fifteen days of the commencement of a Term. If his request is approved, he will be required to continue the study of the subject to within thirty days of the end of the Term. A Cadet will not be permitted to commence the study of a voluntary subject unless the Commandant is satisfied that there is a reasonable probability of the Cadet passing the qualifying examination at the end of the Term in all the obligatory subjects.

95. No voluntary section of a subject of instruction shall be commenced by, or gain any marks for a Cadet until the Professor is satisfied that he is sufficiently forward in the obligatory section, and he has obtained the approval of the Commandant to commence voluntary work.

96. If a Cadet is absent the whole or any portion of a yearly examination in consequence of sickness, rustication, or any other cause, he will immediately on his return for the ensuing Term, be required to pass in the whole of the obligatory subjects of the examination which he missed. The maximum marks which he will be allowed to count in any of these subjects will be the minimum necessary for 1st Class certificate. He will not be allowed to be specially examined in any voluntary section of an obligatory subject which he has missed. He will be allowed to
