

... Some Personal Commendations ...

The Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, G.C.M.G., writes the author: "I have received your book, 'Upper Canada Sketches,' and I can assure you with perfect sincerity that I enjoyed it very much."

"A friend called my attention to your 'Upper Canada Sketches,' and, though I was only able to skim through it, yet I want to write and tell you how much I enjoyed it. . . . It seems to be the most readable book in that line that I have come across."—Miss Minnie Jean Nesbit, Hamilton.

"I have read, 'Sketches' with great pleasure. It is very good and does you credit."—Dr. H. Wheeler, Windsor, Eng.

"I have read it ['Upper Canada Sketches'] with great pleasure and interest. It is, in paper, print, engravings, and margin, a pleasure to look at, and you have brought together very valuable sketches of life."—Miss Janet Carnochan, Secretary Historical Society, Niagara.

"I got for my own library, as soon as it appeared, a copy of your book, and read it through with a great deal of interest and enjoyment."—C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario.

"I have greatly enjoyed Mr. Conant's charming book, having read it from cover to cover. While I don't suppose it appeals to a down-east Yankee like myself, as it must to a Canadian 'to the manor born,' I fully appreciate its fine literary finish, stirring incident, and flavor of 'ye olden time.'"—Ada Chadwick Williams, Chicago.

"Am glad you found something of interest in my book. I could say the same thing, many times emphasized, regarding your own fine volume."—Frank H. Severance, Esq., Author of "Old Trails on the Niagara Frontier."

"Your 'Upper Canada Sketches' are unique, and more references are made to this book than to any other we have on Colonial history."—David Boyle, Esq., Secretary Canadian Historical Society.

"I read your 'Upper Canada Sketches,' and I must pay you the compliment of saying that I could not get away from the atmosphere of that book for a long time after reading it. I have seldom had scenes cling to me as they did. I shall be greatly interested in anything further that you may do along that line."—C. N. Johnston, L.D.S., D.D.S., Chicago.

Mr. Fred Odell Conant, author of "The Conant Genealogy," writes: "I have waited for an opportunity to look it over carefully before replying. It is first-rate, and, so far as I can judge, gives a very good representation of life in the early days in the wilds of Upper Canada. I have been much interested in its perusal, and shall send for two or three more copies at once. You have the gift of making interesting reading."

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher,
29-33 Richmond Street West, - - - Toronto, Ont.