The Kabul River line will prove a valuable alternative route to the Khyber, and, altho short, will overcome the most difficult part of the route between Peshawur and Kabul. Another important consideration is that it is outside Afridi territory. It avoids the gradients of the Khyber route, over which it possesses great advantage from an engineering point of view. Not only will the railway form an important extension of the Indian system, but it will be useful in the event of any assistance from India being required by the ameer.

The Kabul River line will leave the existing railway at some point between Peshawur and the terminus of Jamrud. Its actual length depends on the route finally adopted for which there are certainly two alternative surveys.

Had he killed or stolen a horse, a cow, or a sheep, or had he broken into a house and stolen ever so little, or robbed anybody on the highway, even without personal violence, he would most probably have been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at least, but for recklessly firing into an occupied house he is let off with three months. London, Oct 14.-The Liberals won a notable victory yesterday in the election of J. O. At the general election of 1892 Col. (junter was returned by a majority of 1241 over J. Scarr, a Gladstonian Liberal. Since that contest he has held the seat unopposed.
