printed at season is orrow.

7.50 neat mixture

w of a kind gray, also;

d-Canadian pes ; newest

; sizes 34 to est make and buy better Coffee st blend Java and

o., Limited

igestion ound sleep p health finest of beers

e Ambitious City objects to comght months pas uster-in-Chambers ntil after the ex Iamilton for dis to the master defendants in n the statement the cause.

izing the store of v night, gett gistrate Deniso arrested by Po ot tell where he and Detroit parlor car. 1.00 p.m. dail kets and illustrat Toronto City Of-ner King and you are in pot sk your doc tonic and alteralicine, take his our advice. J. C. Ayer Co. Lowell, Mass.

ESTABLISHED 1864. JOHN CATTO & SON

SPECIAL SALE ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having recently made large purchases of LINEN DAMASK TABLE CLOTHS slightly imperfect, in all sizes, 2 to 7 yards 1-3 BELOW REGULAR PRICE and makes in the perfect goods, with Nap-New EMBROIDERED LINEN QUILTS

$10. $12 and upward. Fine Damask and Huck Towels, Tea Cloths, Carvers, Doyleys, etc., embroidered

EMBROIDERED LINEN GOWN PATTERNS.

Grand display of new Embroidered Linen Shaped Gown Patterns, $7.50, $8, $10, $12, $15, up. Mail orders carefully filled

JOHN CATTO & SON

King-street-Opposite Postoffice,

Continued From Page 1

reasons mentioned in that affidavit. He loved her all right—in his own brute way. There is the scene in the church when the music moved him and he she tears. Where was the delusion there He was nervous and worried on the da of his marriage. Why Evelyn was not 21, and he was afraid her mother would not give her consent. Did Thaw show a delusion? Didn't it rather show a

"What one of the many people who must have known him during his life has been called here to show that he was ever irrational? No one.

"Did his mother say he was ever irrational? No. She simply said he was nervous and depressed, and after we hear of what happened before he left New York I don't wonder." Referring to the experts, he said: "Evans told you that Thaw suffered from exaggerated ego. That is merely another name for vanity. Dr. Bingaanother name for vanity. Dr. Binga-man said that Thaw always had a great opinion of himself. Evans also told fou that Thaw had a brainstorm; a better term would be paranoia of a million-

The district attorney then rehearsed the testimony of the state's experts, and dwelt upon the fact that they all be-Thaw knew the nature of his act, and knew that it was wrong, but that it was an insane knowledge. "When he got to the station-house he gave a fictitious name. That was not the insane man-the agent of Providence, the one man chosen of God avenge a woman-that was not a man glorying in a righteous act.

The Unwritten Law "Mr. Delmas said he would not ap peal to such a shadowy thing as the unwritten law. But he ended by an appeal to 'dementia Americana,' which he said afflicted the whole nation. He might better have adhered to his original purpose, because if this "But when this defendant is presented to you as the supposed avenger of American womanhood—of American virtue-a champion who has lain dormant for three years until he becomes in some way exalted-he does not come within the classification of dementia Americana. He killed for a motive, and when you are asked to acquit such a man you are asked to give something which you have not the power The real question here is, whether

New York City is to become a mining "If this sort of thing can go on-if the only thing between a citizen and his enemy is a brainstorm, then every man had better carry a gun. "Mr. Delmas appealed to the Scriptures. Let me, too, direct your attention to them, to what the Lord said: Vengeance is mine, and I will repay. "Let me also remind you of the great fundamental laws sounded down the did was justifiable or excusable, or whether he should be pumished for it."

THE WEATHER

Meteorological Office, Toronto, April 10.— (8 p.m.)—The disturbance on the Atlantic coast has moved northeastward up the Bay of Fundy, and is now slowly dispersing. Light showers of snow or rain have been general from the lakes to the Atlantic. An energetic disturbance in the western energetic disturbance in the western pro-vinces is causing strong winds, with light snow or rain.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Victoria, 38—52; Kamloops, 38—58; Calgary, 32—46; Edmonton, 30—38; Battleford, 32—
38; Prince Aibert, 30—38; Winnipeg, 18—
30; Port Arthur, 10—32; Parry Sound, 30—
42; Toronto, 34—38; Ottawa, 30—38; Montreal, 26—36; Quebec, 26—34; St. John, 30—38; Halifax, 30—42.

Probabilities.

Lakes and Georgian Bay-Fresh north and northwest winds; fair and cool. Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence—Fresh north and northwest winds; fair and cool. Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Strong northeasterly to northwesterly winds; fair and cool. Maritime-Fresh winds; cloudy, with ght local rain or sleet.

Lake Superior—Easterly winds; cloudy nd a little milder. Manitoba—Fresh winds; mostly cloudy, with light rain or sleet.

Saskatchewan—Fresh winds; mostly cloudy, with light rain or sleet.

Alberta—Northwesterly winds; fair and

THE BAROMETER.

8 a.m. 87 Noon 35 2 p.m. 36 4 p.m. 87 29.03 30 N.W. 4 p.m. 37 8 p.m. 35 29.20 25 N.W. 10 p.m. 35 29.24 Mean of day, 36; difference from average, 3 below; highest, 38; lowest, 34; rain, .02.

Women's Canadian Historical Society, Canadian Institute, 3 p.m.
Royal Grandiers' parade ermories, 8.
U. E. Loyallists, Canadian Institute, 8.
Townsto, Conservators of Institute, 8. Toronto Conservatory of Music or-ctestra concert, Massey Hall, 8. Special meeting city council, city hall, 8. Princess Theatre, "Madame Butter-

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

STEAMSHIP MOVEMENTS.

di?	April 10 At From
vi	Furnessia Sandy Hook Glasgow
t	Kengington Darida Glasgow
	KensingtonPortland Liverpool
1	MontevideoNew York Naples
۳	TeutonicQueenstownNew York
1	Montcalm Bristol St. John, N.B.
2	Uscar II Copenhagen New York
	K.W. der Gros. Bremen New York remsylvania. Cherbourg New York
k	Saruinian Havre St. John N.B.
1	CreticGlbraltar
	Parisian Marsellles New York
	CarpathiaGenoa New York
	New lork

MARRIAGES. MARRIAGES.

DUNN—PALLETT—At St. George's Church, Islington, on April 9th, Weldington Denu of Burnhamthorpe to Thekla, daughter of Charles Pallett, Esq., of Dixle, Ont. LYNES—GILBERT—At St. Cecilia's Church, Toronto Junction, by Rev. Father Gallagher, on April 8th, 1907, Mary Cooper, eldest daughter of Mr. James Gilbert, Daventort to John J. James Gilbert, Daventort to John J. James Cooper, eldest daughter of Mr. James Gilbert, Davenport, to John J. Lynes of Toronto.

HAMLY—LENNOX—At Toronto, on April 9th, 1907, by the Rev. Dr. Gliray, Nona Lennox of Toronto to L. C. Hamly of DEATHS. CROW—At his late residence, 270 Avenue-road, on Wednesday, April 10th, Samuel Gilbert Joseph Crow, in the 61st year of his age.

runeral notice later. Gueiph and rergus papers please copy.

OWIE—On April 9th 1907, at the residence of Mr. C. Ferguson, 228 Chestinat-street, Mrs. Elizabeth Cowie, widow of the late Thomas Cowie, aged 64 years.

Funeral from the above address, Thursday, April 11th, at 2 p.m. to St. James. day, April 11th, at 2 p.m., to St. James'

Funeral from above address on Friday at 2.30 p.m., to St. John's Cemetery, Noro your passions, is a broad wide departure roun the duty of counsel.

"The proposition of sympathy can be played upon by both sides. Have you thought of the widow in Cambridge and the fatherless boy in Harvard? I mention this, men, that you may see that the question of sympathy has nought to do with the lessues here."

Reasonable Doubt,

Reasonable Doubt,
Reasonable doubt, he said, was only such a doubt as a man would act upon in matters pertaining to his own private aTairs.

"On the subject of insantry you jurors swore you would not inject any ideas of your own into your judgment, but take the law as it was laid down to you by the court. You swore you would accept only that form of insanity which deprives a man of the knowledge of the nature and quality of his act, or that it is wrong, that quality of his act, or that it is wrong, that it is against the current morality of the fundamental laws sounded down the ages—the commandment of God—

"Thou shalt not kill.""

Wandering in Romance.

Mr. Jerome began his address to the jury by saying that the jurors for the past two days had been "wandering thru a mere field of romance." He added that the life of a human being is not to be judged on sich a premise and that the issues could not be determined by scripture quotations.

"The law is not cruel," he declared later. It pumishes only to protect those who live under it."

"This is not a trial to determine whether. Evelyn Nesbit was ravished by Stanford White." Mr. Jerome said, "but an Issue to between the people of New York and Harry K. Thaw to determine whether what he

In Justice to White,

-Absolutely Pure-

For the third of a century the standard for strength and purity. It makes the hot bread, hot biscuit, cake and other pastry light, sweet and excellent in every quality.

No other baking powder is "just as good as Royal," either in strength, purity or wholesomeness.

> Many low-priced imitation baking powders are upon the market. These are made with alum or phosphate acid, and care should be taken to avoid them, as neither alum nor bone phosphate in abnormal quantities should be taken in the food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

into being by taking stock in it. As manager of the Union Trust, it was, the funds of the company he was dealing with, not the funds of the Foresters. Nor could it be argued that he had led the Foresters to believe that the money to be invested in the Union Trust was to be treated, not as capital of the company, but Stephenson-avenue, East Toronto, on Wednesday, April 10th, Robert Rogerson, power to invest capital in real estate. power to invest capital in real estate, The Foresters, by agreement, also gave the company power to invest certain funds in such forms of investment as are permitted by the charter of the Foresters. Upon this the company was to pay the Foresters 4 per cent., and keep the balance as the company's profit. Therefore there was no contravention of law or improper investment in either case. Yet whole gist of the report went to eson of sympathy has nought to do with the such same and the charge so boldly formulated by Mr. Bourassa the other day, when he said: "On the one hand, Mr. Foster is accused by the commissioners of having formed this syndicate in order to take the trust funds, of which he was man-ager, and loan them to himself as a nember of the syndicate; secondly, that he has received a either from the party that gave him the money to be held in trust, or from commission the syndicate of which he was a mem-

> Mr. Foster said that, in March, 1903, the supreme court of the I. O. composed of Dr. Oronhyatekha, Mr. McGillivray and Dr. Montague, doaned to themselves $133,000 at 6 per cent. on certain lands, bought or to be bought, by Dr. Montague, and to be right to say to this house that it is be sold for the benefit of the three an outrige that such a report should be parties named and Mr. Foster himber by the permanent records of this be put in the permanent records of this a member of the I.O.F. From March, 1902, down to May, 1903, that business was carried on entirely outside of the trust company, which later sim-ply held the titles and reconveyed om to persons who bought the land. The commission had a right to discipline the officers of the supreme court, I.O.F., who lent the money to emselves and Mr. Foster, but virtuous Mr. Shepley had not a word to say until the time the Union Trust country to a commission appointed to resented Mr. Foster's imputation that ask some questions with reference to in-The following had appeared in the re port: "Out of these moneys Fowler paid Foster at least $2500 and probably $7000. (See evidence, pages 3100, etc.)"

"But who," asked Mr. Foster, "would turn up this evidence to see the expla-nation? It might as well be hidden in Hades so far as I was concerned. "Twenty-five years from this," he continued, "when my dust has mingled with mother earth, some political slan-derer arises in this house, and in reply to a member from the opposition, taunts him with the character of his former political associates, as shown by the report of the royal commission, showing that he had taken a bribe to carry on this trust company business. I am not the there," continued Mr. Foster, with emfully than into the other mutual societies, phasis, "to meet my traducer, and 50 years afterwards it is the same and for-ever, down the rolling years of the his-tory of Canada, that damnable record is there, full of falsity, the utter abandon-ment of all sense of honor and all truth and all manly conduct, man to man."

How, he asked, did Judge McTavish dare put such a malicious finding in his report? Mr. Foster explained the land transactions. The commission had made a finding that the facts were not disclosed to the meeting of directors, at which the bargain was closed, that Messrs. Foster, McGillivray and Wilson were connected with the ownership of the

To be sure, in the transaction there were dual directors, but that was quite ecording to law. Not a dollar of the Union Trust money had gone into their pockets and in the end the company made a large profit.

be put in the permanent records of this country? Have I not the right to ask this house, in common honesty to me, that it order this report back to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts, setting the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the commission for amendment are common honests to the commission for amendment—for eramed to deal fairly with the facts are common honests to the common honests there partial and concealed statements are given, for a plain statement one way or the other, instead of an insinuation? What right has this house to ask that the public money of this country shall be voted to brand me as a common grafter for eternity? I will fight it until I die. I shall protest the commission was more or less animated by a desire in its investigation of the I.O.F. to secure political advantage over that honorable gentleman. served that Judge Morgan, who sat with Judge McTavish in the West Elgin case, was a Conservative. As for the charge of partisanship, it. As for the charge of partisanship, it was disproved by the fact that a prominent Liberal (Senator Cox) was equally displeased with the report. Mr. Foster was only treated like all other witnesses, but his counsel, Mr. Nesbitt, K.C., had the fullest latitude,

Dealing with the I.O.F., Mr. Aylesbecause it was the most important of all. As to the Union Trust, the money invested by it consisted of $499 of Foresters' money for every dollar put in by the syndicate, and it was money contributed by people who could ill afford to lose it, and it was therefore incumbent on the commission to enquire into the affairs of the trust company.

that transactions had resulted ! profit, Mr. Aylesworth observed only twelve months ago a gentleman, as he was then considered. a prominent bank, speculated with the bank's money in stocks. His trans-actions resulted in disaster and failure. The moneys held by the Foresters were more sacred than the funds of the On-tario Bank, for they were held for the benefit of the widow and orphan. One thing he would say for Mr. Bennett, and that was that he own money into the transaction,

Will Fight to the Last.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster said: "If ter, McGillivray and Wilson—for having statement to-day is true, have I not the right to say to this house that it is the Union Trust to buy lands. They were in a majority at the meeting, at which the 3371-2 shares, originally interest were diverting.

A Prepared Attack Mr. Borden declared that, after list-and out if he (Mr. Borden) had any Dealing with Mr. Foster's argument, made according to law. Mr. Borden quoted from Mr. Shepthose questions and getting those an-tions of the minister of justice," marked an opposition member. those sent by telephone," added another, amidst general laughter Aylesworth reminded Mr. Bor-

M.A.Murray & Co.Limited

Business Hours Daily: opens at 8.80 a.m. and closes at 6 p.m.

Bargain Offerings in Hand Drawn and Hand Hemstitched Linens; Main Floor Friday

The offerings, of which there are two, embrace finer collections of drawn and hand hemstitched linens than were ever previously offered by us at bargain prices. The assortment includes Tea Cloths in three sizes, 30, 36 and 45 inches square; Centre Pieces, in three sizes, 18, 20 and 24 inches square; Scarfs, in four sizes, 18x36, 18x45, 18x54 and 18x72 inches. The linens are all choice fine goods and beautifully drawn, there are about sixty dozen, in a very large variety of patterns in many cases, there is only one piece in a pattern. We've made two lots for quick clearing, Friday: LOT 1, AT 75c EACH.

LOT 2, AT 75c EACH. The sale prices are just about half what the linens are worth. Window display to-day. Sale to-morrow, Friday.

GLASSWARE

AND CHINA BARGAINS 100 Assorted Designs of Bohemian Green Glass Vases; suitable for wild flowers, value 75c each, 25

A special offering of those quaint Dutch Jugs, in various sizes, small-est 61-2 inches high, values $1, and $1.25, to clear Friday, ...50

JARDINIERES SPECIAL $1.25

LEATHER LINED SUIT GASES AND HAND BAGS $7.50

Here's an excellent chance for you, a better article than you'd buy under regular circumstances, but you'll not object to giving $7.50 when so good an article is to be had; the Bags and Suit Cases are slightly soiled, but perfect in every other respect; the regular price was $10; they were good value. too; to-morrow, while the 1.7.50 lot lasts, your choice at.....7.50

Our Stunning Tailor - Made Suits For Women at $25.00

Of course, we're not putting these Suits forward as a bargain featurethough so far as value is concerned they represent more for the money than anything, in finely tailored suits that we ever saw offered. The styles are strictly correct, perfect copies of New York's latest creations in pretty stripes,

The commissioners were men of standing in the country. At the mention of the opposition called out: "What about at a certain directors' meeting. Mr. West Eigin?" and Mr. Aylesworth observed that Judge Morgan who sat ing that confiaman with his own signature. ing that gentleman with his own signature, which would have convinced him his memory was unreliable as to these meetings. It was different with Judge McTavish when he was a com-missioner in the West Elgin trial On that occasion Judge McTavish not only required accused to be furnished with copies of charges, but ruled that such officials and others as were charged might be represented at the enquiry by counsel. In this case, indeed, those impartial and upright > thing to do with these transactions. Unwise Comparison, Mr. Borden scored the minister for having contrasted the investments of the Union Trust with the embezzlements of the general manager of the Ontario Bank, pointing out to him that Mr. Foster had challenged any man to point to one investment not

> The political discrimination of the mmission in entering upon a long enquiry into $1000 paid to Hon. Colin Campbell of Manitoba for value received, was pointed out, as well as the fact that, having thus aspersed Mr. Campbell, the commission had not had the decency to give his explanation in ley's long examination of Mr. Lefurgey as to the discussions about land during the Northwest trip, the object being, of course, to try and connect Mr. Borden with the matter, and observed "Either Judge McTa vish is unfit to occupy a seat on the bench, or he knew perfectly the ob-ject of their questioning." What was the object of putting swers?" Mr. Borden asked "Just obeying the verbal instruc-he had the audacity to claim sincerity as a political inquisition paid by the and moderation for his speech. As to whether Judge McTavish needed no defence, Mr. Borden regarded that as a matter of opinion. The denial to Mr. Foster of the right to be represented by courselved any special favors who R., who declared that the members who purchased C. P. R. lands had not received any special favors whatever.

W. H. Bennett devoted considerable energy and eloquence to Judge McTavish, dealing especially with his honor's record on the West Elgin commission. He concluded mission. He concluded by declaring that Mr. Foster, by his manly and straightforward speech, had enshrined himself in the hearts of the opposition and contrasted Mr. Foster's humble financial position with that of Liberal ministers who had gone out of the cabinet with a million cabinet with a million.

The house rose at midnight and Mr. E. Guss Porter will probably resume the debate to-morrow morning.

FARMERS FETED AND FEASTED commissioners were more anxious to Toronto Hunt Club Gives Dinner to Farmers of York Township,

The farmers of York, Scarboro and Etobicoke were feasted right royally by George W. Beardmore, master of the foxhounds of the Toronto Hunt Club, in the St. Charles last night. The dinner, which is an annual affair, is extended to the farmers over whose acres the club has coursing side of the master of the foxhounds, were: Hon. Adam Beck, Captain Gordon Miller, Mr. Cowan, H. C. Os-borne, Alfred Rogers, Francis Nelson, Colonel Harston, Mr. Macauley, Ma-jor Wyatt, Colonel Stimson of the Royal Grenadiers, George A. Mr. Henry (warden of North York), J. D. Montgomery, George Pepper, R. W. Davies, George L Davies, D. L. McCarthy, Dr. W. A. Young, Frank Proctor and Professor Lang of the School of Science of the Toronte Uni-School of Science of the Toronto University.

Hon, Adam Beck, in his speech, nade the announcement that the ernment will contribute $2000 to assist in enabling horses reared in On-terio to be shown at the International Horse Show, to be held in London, Eng., in June. Dr. Andrew Smith made a witty speech in proposing the toast. The Toronto Hunt Club," which was responded to by H. C. Osborne.

ceed with the investigation into the who says to us: "If your preparation is what you claim, you should have no objection to letting us try it before spending money on it." To every person taking this view we say, "We agree!" Send us one cent stamp (to pay return postage) and name and date of this paper, and we

The desiret attours passed were controlled to produced for the produced of the