Slow Game at Rochester.

Rochester, June 9.—A crowd of 1000 people saw Rochester win from Syracuse today in a listless and uninteresting game. Errors and Cross' poor throwing, resulting in many stolen bases, together with lucky bunching of hits, made the game easy for Rochester. Score:

Worcester, Mass., June 9.—Hartford had an easy thing with Worcester to-day, taking the third game in the geries. Clark was knocked out of the box'in the second inling and Lampe was substituted. Crate kept the hits well scattered, and but for Wheeler's home run the Farmers would have been blanked.

Montreal's team was a little short of soniething and the score will show that the Islanders were something long on runs. The chief of the champs stuck in his best pitcher, and when he was knocked off the slab Capt. Choily jabbed in his second best artist. Souders gave 5 bases on bulls in the two rounds. Toronto sandwiched in three singles, and, with three errors, a cusch lead was taken. Souders says he pever did care to pitch here. Felix tried his hand in the thiru and Toronto kept plugging out the hirs. Duggleby is scheduled to pitch for the Pea Soupes to-day, though other pitchers, Abbey or Souders, or probably both, may be called to his assistance.
Williams, for Toronto, should turn the trick again to-day, as Suthoff did yesterday.

Montreal made a bold bluff at championship form yesterday at the Island, and that was all. Toronto went at them at flag-fail, and the game was won and lost in the initial round. Dooley was obliged to use his best pair of slab artists, and they will scarcely do against the Islanders. Souders took to the woods after the second innings, when Toronto had a lead of 5 to 0. Felix, who had only lost one game before this year, started out on his shape in the third, and horseshoe fielding kept him from the barn.

The visitors made a good impression. Dooley did not show Buckenberger tactics when Souders flew the coop, but put in his second start and gave the 1200 spectators a run for their money. Abbie Johnson, the Toronto lad on the team, was given a hand first time up. Score:
