the Shamrocks had a finger broken in the first game, but he played right thru the first game and present causes for a referee that has ever officiated before a long-suffering Toronto crowd. Mr. Shillington may not fave intended to show partiality, but he gave the visitors all the better of the decisions, and richly deserved all the hoots and hisses he got from the first game and pressed closely. White relieved, but Pringle intercepted his pass and threw to Greatrix, who shot straight. Hess was in the way and the battwent down the field, but came back. Graydon tried a shot, but missed by ablock, and in a mixup, which followed, Cameron tried to twist Greatrix is neck and a face-off was necessary. Notes of Saturday's Game.

The Toronto's team are badly used up after the match on Saturday; nearly every man has a mark to show.

One of the old time Toronto lacrosse men said he never saw a harder fought out finish than Saturday's, and in nis opinion the Torontos, altho much younger, put up a stubborn fight.

Saturday's game was the last straw to break the camel's back with the Toronto lacrosse public, as far as Ottawa referees are concerned. After Toronto's experience at Euflaio and Saturday at Rosedale, gen themselves overly popular in Toronto as referees.

Toronto lost a useful man when Charlie ball Park later this week will settle the question of first place. Providence was whitewashed on Saturday, and now Toronto is the only team in the Eastern League that has escaped the whitewash. The record:

to witness the Senior League championship match between Cornwall and Toronto, which was won by the visitors by 3 games to 2. The match thruout was a battle of defences, and Cornwall won on account of their superiority in this respect.

There was very little brilliant lacrosse, but from the start both teams played for blood, and the result was that Toronto lost one of the hardest played games ever seen on Rosedale grounds.

The Torontos cut out the pace from the start, and had the better of the play most of the time. They had the visitors beaten at every point, except the defence, and here they were up against the best in the business. Time after time little Jack Dowling would start a combination, that took the ball right up to the visitors' goal, but, except on two occasions, without any result, as Hess or John White was always in the way.

All the nutriment and strength of the maltall the flavor of the Co. team for the second time this season.

Both were of the first-class order, and were full of interest all thru. In the first game errorless ball was the order of the day. Both Claude Armstrong and Mull Douglas pitched good ball. The feature was the work of Charley Synge at second base and his stick work, he having three hits out of three times up, two of them being home runs. The second game was good and fast, the champions having a little the best of the fielding, and winning a little the best of the fielding, and winning at the game again for the Park Nine and Eastern Lily Baseball Club defeated the Saints twirled his usual good, steady game.
