

At the close of the year, the teachers accepted with regret the resignation of Mr. George Hyde as Assistant Superintendent. For three years Mr. Hyde has acceptably performed the duties of this office and those of twenty-five years previous, and I am sure I am voicing the sentiments of the staff in expressing the highest appreciation of his services to the school during this period: Such a record constrained the teachers, however reluctantly, to meet Mr. Hyde's wish to be relieved. We are glad to have him still a member of the staff, and at the same time feel sure that the duties of Assistant Superintendent will be ably performed by his successor, Mr. Munro.

In concluding our report for the year, we, as a staff of teachers, desire to express our deep sense of the importance of the work in which we are engaged, and, while confessing that we have not always done what we could in the past, we shall strive to go on in God's strength, asking His blessing upon our efforts during the year before us.

Respectfully submitted,

I. GAMMELL,

Secretary.
