The Dominion championship race meet held at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon was one of the most successful held in Canada in years, and barring a few minor accidents, in which a few riders took a spill, the program was run off without a hitch. was a good attendance and the crowd was a very enthusiastic one. This met, held by the London Bicycle Dealers' Association, under the sanction of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association, resulted in Harold Bounsall of Toronto winning the Dominion all-round bicycle championship for 1919-20, with four 526 championship for 1972-20, with 1643 500 firsts and one second prize to his 429 credit in the championship events, and Herb. McDonald of Toronto came seconds with two firsts, and three seconds.

Bounsall is one of the neatest riders in the game today, and although he rode a strange wheel in the one-mile core away he succeeded in outdisopen event, he succeeded in outdistancing all competitors and cutting off thirteen seconds from his time made in the one-mile Dominion championship race a few moments before.

A Spill in Novice Race. A Spill in Novice Race.

During the first heat of the one-mile novice race, G. E. McKay of Toronto took a bad spill, and C. Cousins, a local lad, crashed into his wheel, wrecking both bicycles, but neither contestant was injured. A feature event added to the program was the half-mile race by Jack McDonald, aged 9 years, of Toronto, a son of Herb. McDonald, and Charles Hammond, aged 10 years, of this city, resulting in a victory for the former youngster. Hammond presented himself to the officials of the meet yesterday morning, accompanied by his yesterday morning, accompanied by his small bicycle, and asked for an oppor-tunity to win a prize. The officials small bicycle, and asked for an oppor-tunity to win a prize. The officials then arr, nged for the two boys to race, and McD nald won, owing to the local lad taking a spill while circling the track. He vever, both youngsters con-sented to ride a special sprint event, and it was a treat to witness the spirit shown by these future champions, Mc-Donald outdistancing Hammond at the finish. A special prize will be pre-sented to young Hammond for his good work.
