PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

George Kincaid Davis and his celebrated Kincaid Kilties will be the big feature attraction at Loew's this week. This is the biggest, and best act of its kind ever presented in vaudeville.

Another big attraction will be Charles B. Lawton and his daughters, presenting their character singing revue, Mack Albright and Mack, one of the brightest and best singing and comedy acts in vaudeville. The Bell Thayer brothers, acrobats and jugglers; Marshall and Gordon, musical fun-makers; and Dunlap and Virden, in musical comedy with a fine film featuring Virginia Pearson in "The Tortured Heart" will complete the bill. The winter garden is open every evening.

WORLD OF FROLICS.

Admirers of Dave Marion will see him in a new role this season, also he still is giving his famous impersonation of "Snuffy," the tongue-tied cabman. He is seen in new surroundings this time; he meets with new complications, overcomes new difficulties and provides new laughs. In "The World of Frolics," which comes to the Gayety Theatre next Monday, the management believes it offers its patrons the most pretentious musical show ever presented at its scale of prices.

AT THE REGENT.

Maurice and Florence Walton, dancers, who are making their motion picture debut in the Famous Players production, "The Quest of Life," have the distinction of having overcome the prejudice of the queen against the tango. "The Quest of Life" is the feature attraction at the Regent Theatre today and tomorrow.

MME. GUILBERT TONIGHT.

Mme. Yvette Guilbert and her assisting artists, Emily Gresser and Gustave Ferrari, arrived in the city last night and will be at Massey Hall tonight. Mme. Guilbert has pleasant recollections of her appearance in Toronto ten years ago, and she is looking for the same warm reception that was accorded her on her former visit. Her program is a most attractive one.

"THE FALL OF A NATION."

With only two days remaining of the presentation of "The Fall of a Nation" at the Strand Theatre, the public enthusiasm with regard to it, shows no signs of abating. All who wish to see the greatest production of the day should make sure of doing so either today or tomorrow.

BEAVER UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

How to Make a Good Hair Tonic at Home

If you have been using hair tonics purchased ready-made at the drug stores, you can probably save some money and get a great deal better results by using the following recipe, which has been remarkably successful in stopping loss of hair and making new hair grow on bald and thin spots. Anyone can easily make it at home. Simply mix 2 oz. of Lavender Compound with 2 oz. of Bay Rum and then add one-half dram of menthol crystals and a little perfume, if desired. The preparation should be well shaken and then allowed to stand a few hours before using. All these ingredients can be obtained from any well-stocked drug store. In applying, be sure to not merely wet the hair, but to rub the tonic into the scalp, as its ability to grow new hair depends entirely upon its nourishment being absorbed by the hair roots. This preparation has been widely used for years, and is entirely harmless, and will not make the hair greasy. Ladies should be careful not to apply to face where hair is not desired. G. L. S. Binghamton, N.Y.
