PROGRAM OF THE WEEK

Monday—Mrs. Herbert Locke's tea, Schubert Choir Concert, Massey Hall. Mrs. Hilda's dance, Hya Yaka Club dance.

Tuesday—L.O.E. Rose Ball at the King-Edward. Marriage of Miss M. A. Hunt to Mr. Hunter in London, Ont. Marriage of Miss Harriette Dinnick to the guest of honor. The table decorations were charming, an immense cluster of lilies forming the centre and the candles shaded in yellow. At each place were cream roses tied with yellow, blue and brown, the colors of the association. Miss Lawler in a few pleasant words, wished Mrs. Small bon voyage and the toast was joined in all rising and singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A happy hour with music and conversation followed.

MISS WALKER'S RECITAL

An exceedingly interesting program will be rendered at the recital to be given in St. George's Hall next Saturday evening. Miss Katharine Walker, entertainer, assisted by Hartwell, Lill, baritone, and Harriet, Lill, soprano. Miss Walker will sing the Spanish waltz "San- ora," and then "Pipes of Pan," from "The breadland," and will also appear in a duet with Mr. De Mille, her sister. The program will include humorous and dramatic readings, and a scene from "Home and Juliet," from Faust, and a number of other songs. Tickets are on sale at the Bell piano warehouse, Yonge-street, and have been placed at one price, fifty cents each, with no reserved seats.

D. Morrison Gets Large Contract.

The contract for making the uniforms for the St. John's Ambulance Association, of which appears in the illustrated section, has been given to D. Morrison, Toronto's Largest Credit Clothing Store, 24, King Street west. While the organization is but a comparatively new one in this city, it is expected that the total enrollment will be over the thousand mark this year. The uniform will be a duplicate of that worn by corps in the Old Country.

VALENTINE CONCERT

The St. Valentine's Musical Concert, under the auspices of "Murray's Dandies" Association, for the benefit of the Queen's Own Rifles, Chapter L.O.E. took place on Wednesday night in the Cavalry mess-room at the Armouries, which had been decorated for the occasion. At the back of the stage the wall was arranged with bunting of crimson and green, and the centre, which was a large coat of arms of the regiment in silver, on a crimson heart. The Bugle Band opened the concert, arriving from a distance, in a most effective manner. At the close of the concert the audience adjourned to the officers mess-room, where refreshments were served from a long table decorated with an immense heart of crimson, and edged with glossy green leaves. At intervals vases of carnations and ferns, with the chime belonging to the Queen's Own Rifles, made a very pretty table. The program distributed were: Miss Evelyn Taylor, Miss Jeanette Barclay, Miss Marie Ayre, Miss J. Case, Miss Maude Weir, Miss Beatrice Ross, Miss Marjorie Hutchins, Miss Jean Bellingham, Miss Jean Cotton and Miss Marjorie Murray.

SANDERSON-CLARKE

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clarke, 183 Major-street, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday, when the marriage took place of their second daughter, Edna Gladys, to Mr. John Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanderson, Victoria Park-avenue, Scarborough, England. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Fodley. The groom's gift to the bride was a three-stone diamond and sapphire ring. Miss Lillian Clarke was her sister's bridesmaid, in pink silk, with white satin trimmings. She carried pink carnations and wore the groom's gift, a pearl sunset. Mr. William Sanderson, brother of the groom, was best man, and Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson left later to spend their honeymoon at Niagara and Buffalo.

The Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, daughter of the Czar, who is being mentioned as eligible to be the bride of the Prince of Wales, of England. The Grand Duchess is one of the most attractive and beautiful young women in European royal families, and she is accomplished in many ways. It is declared by members of both the British and Russian Court that her disposition exactly balances that of the young Prince, and that they would make a most happy match.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Sumner, Box W, 865, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

HOME FAT REDUCER

Works Rapidly and Safely—Requires No Exercise and Allows You to Eat What You Like—Cut This Out.

For the benefit of those who wish to reduce their flesh quickly and safely, we will give the recipe and directions in full for a simple household remedy that can be obtained at trifling cost from any good drug store: 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract, 1/2 ounce Peppermint Water. All three are cheap and wholesome, and you should take care to get an unbroken package so that your children trouble you not a substitute. When you get home mix the three together by shaking them together in a large bottle and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Follow these directions and you will have the best fat reducer that money can buy. It will take off the flesh at the rate of at least two pounds a week without disturbing the stomach or causing wrinkles, while, besides all, no exercising or dieting is required to help it out. You can get results and at the same time take things easy, and eat what you like—as much as you like—and whenever you like.

Strand's Powerful Play Pictures

Lawless Mountain Districts of United States Portrayed at the Yonge Street Theatre.

As its leading feature the Strand Theatre will this week present a powerful photo play, illustrating life in the lawless mountain districts of the United States. Far up in its recesses two brothers, Tom and Harry Butler, run an illicit still and are ever in fear of arrest. During Harry's illness the officers learn the location of the still, and enter in the pursuit of the brothers. While asleep in his cabin, gun in hand, and the thief uses it to shoot one of the officers, leaving the gun, this casts suspicion on Harry, who is arrested and charged with the murder. His mother and sweetheart plead with the sheriff, who refuses to accept their story, and is about to conduct Harry to prison, when his mother asks a few moments' respite. She enters the house, a shot is heard, and her son drops dead. Then the mother rushes to his side, exclaiming, "You have secured him, but you cannot hang him." A tragic story, but true to the character of the wild and reckless mountaineers.

The Strand's variety entertainment is always looked forward to, and this week will be exceptionally good. Nelson Waring, who comes direct from Hammerstein, after a three-weeks' run, has been the sensational hit at every theatre in which he has appeared. He has been engaged at many family and society functions of the New York Four Hundred, including those given by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fleck and Miss Vanderbilt. The orchestra will render fine selections through the week. The Strand is the favorite theatre house, and ladies and children find their convenience met by the continuous performance from 12 noon, and popular prices.
