

cle a very decided advance by the time when another report is presented. The objects of the Association are, the intellectual and moral improvement of the young people of the church ; the promotion of kindly feeling among them ; and the organization and direction of their efforts in the field of Christian work. As these are objects which must commend themselves to all right-thinking people, we invite the sympathy and co-operation of the members of the congregation in seeking their attainment. The meetings are held every alternate Monday evening, at eight o'clock, in the room of the Association.

The Young Men's Meeting, in the same apartment, for devotional exercises, on Sabbath morning at a quarter-past ten, is continued as formerly, and an earnest invitation is addressed to the young men of the church to attend it.
