

THE ST. JOHN EVENING TIMES, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1904.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS. The company at the Opera House in a Runaway Match.

Local News. TO SUBSCRIBERS. If THE TIMES is not regularly delivered to you kindly advise the office, so that the trouble may be overcome.

Mr. McNeil, of the I. O. O. F. Monday, and Mrs. McNeil, are in the city.

H. C. Tilley, G. W. P., of the S. of T., accompanied by the grand officers and propagation committee of the Grand Division, will visit Gurney Division, this evening.

Twelve of the jail prisoners are now working at Rockwood Park. The number of prisoners in the jail this year averages about the same as last year, the number then being forty-two.

The young Greek, Anthony Pappas, who was attacked by his brother on the Atlantic express yesterday, is still at the Union depot. It is not yet known what will be done with him.

In the fish market today the supply is somewhat limited. There are no halibut, haddock and cod are fairly plentiful, and are selling at 10c per pound, and flounders at 7c per pound, clams at 15c per quart.

Workmen are now busily engaged at Queen's Skating Rink, preparing for the grand opening Christmas day. Water bands will be in attendance both afternoon and evening. The rink is very attractive, and is a most desirable place for a winter evening's amusement.

Roy Stewart, a native of Scotch settlement, near Moncton, was a passenger on the Boston express this morning, en route home from Maine.

He had been working in the lumber woods near Burnford Falls and had his right knee badly lacerated by a cross-cut saw. Blood poisoning ensued and he was for several weeks in the hospital at Burnford Falls. He is returning to his old home accompanied by his brother William Stewart.

The adjourned annual meeting of the St. John Christian Endeavor Union, will be held tonight in Leinster street Baptist church at 7.45. The usual routine business will be followed, and the election of officers held. There will also be an address by Rev. C. W. Hamilton on the subject "Christian Life."

F. Floyd will deliver an address on "The Benefit of the Church Services from the Christian Endeavor Society." Mr. Floyd has had much experience in the Christian Endeavor movement.

WEDDINGS. McKelvin-Read. Yesterday, in Fairville, John M. McKelvin, second son of Rev. W. L. McKelvin, pastor of the parish, was married to Miss Lennie Read, also of Fairville. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, and was performed by the father of the groom. Miss Read, who was tastefully gowned in champagne tulle, was given away by her brother, Rudolph McKelvin. A large number of guests witnessed the ceremony, and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. McKelvin drove to the depot and left on the 6 o'clock train for Boston, amid many expressions of good will from those present.

On returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McKelvin will reside at the rectory, Fairville.

Cameron-Kisselard. On November 30, the marriage of J. Evans Cameron, formerly of St. John, but now of Liverpool (N. S.), to Miss May Kisselard of St. John, took place in St. Mary's Church, Jordan. Rev. John Johnston officiating. Miss Grace Johnston and A. Johnston, sister and brother of the clergyman, were bridesmaids and groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron are at home at 591 Second avenue, Lornain.

GLACE BAY WOMAN FINDS BAD MONEY IN ASH-PILE. Glace Bay, Dec. 8.—(Special)—Quite a sensation was created last evening, when it became known that a woman named Mrs. McGilivray had found $125 in counterfeit notes. Yesterday afternoon, a boy named Ralphe McGilivray attempted to pass a bogus bill at Philip Elin's confectionery store. Mr. Elin at once detected the fraud and called in officer Linnell. On investigation, it was discovered that young McGilivray had received the bill from another boy named McGilivray, who had been questioned, and that his mother, who lives in South street, had found a sum of money amounting to $125 in her ash pile. Mrs. McGilivray, on being called on by the police, confessed the money.

A WOMAN DECLINED To Send Assistance to Policeman With Broken Leg. Police officer John J. Smith met with a serious accident this morning about 6.30 o'clock. He was on his way to the north end police station to report for duty, and slipped on Paradise Row and fell, breaking his left leg, just above the ankle bone.

A lady who was passing was asked by officer Smith to go and get some assistance, but she kept right on her way and paid no attention whatever to the officer's pleadings.

A workman came along a little later, and notified Sergt. Kilpatrick at the north end police station, who sent officers Burchill and Hamm to the assistance of the injured man. The policeman procured a carriage and drove Mr. Smith to his home on Hazen St. Dr. Scammell was summoned and ordered him to be removed at once to the hospital. This was done in the ambulance.

Mr. Smith will probably be unable to go on duty again this winter. At noon to-day he was resting quite easy.

A RUNAWAY MATCH. The Daily Company will present Mark Swan's comedy success entitled "A Runaway Match" as their attraction for the latter half of this week, opening tonight. The play is full of funny situations and the members of the organization much scope to display their versatility.

Homer Mulleney will handle the leading comedy role, that of Solomon Short, factotum a lowly tavern. He will introduce several late specialties, including "There's a Dark Man Coming With a Bundle," and "Dad's Front Porch." Other musical numbers will be "I'll be Busy All Next Week," "Sybil" and "Back to Balminton." Mr. Brown will also render Chopin's Polonaise in A as a piano solo. The comedy will be well worth witnessing.

Saturday afternoon's performance will take the form of a carnival matinee when all attending will be given floral souvenirs.

ZION SALE AND TEA. Owing to the disagreeable weather last evening the sale of Zion church, will continue their sale of useful and fancy articles on Friday evening, Dec. 9th. Last evening the sale was well patronized. The tables were very prettily decorated. The canopy table, in pink and green, was presided over by Miss Maud Isvelle, Jennie Bovelle, Nap Powers, and Myrtle Patterson.

The cushion table in green and white, was in charge of Mrs. A. C. Powers. The table in pink and green, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Logan, Miss Wilson, and Miss McAfee. A piano table, Mrs. Jas. Heans and Mrs. V. Wilson.

Variety table, Misses Dunlop and Gregg. Tea room, Mrs. J. J. Irvine, Mrs. H. Carr, Mrs. Kethlin, Misses Irvine and Robinson.

The programme rendered during the evening was a good one and Mrs. C. Cougle, Mrs. Titus, and Miss Ruby Elderkin, responded to encores.

THE COURTS. The case of Bustin vs Segue will be resumed in the county court tomorrow morning. The review case of Reithbury vs Waiton and Scovill Bros. vs Hanson will also be heard. The Supreme court opens January 1st, 1905.

The case of Shaw vs Myers came up in the city court this morning. Sheriff claims $10 for work that he did for Myers. There was some difficulty caused by the delay in giving judgment. The case will probably be reviewed before another court. J. B. Baxter appeared for Mr. Myers and J. King Kelly appeared in the interest of Mr. Shaw.

POLICE COURT. Four prisoners greeted the bench at the police court this morning. Two simple drunks were disposed of as usual. Bert Gaster and Harry McNeil, who were given in charge by C. J. Milligan, of the Victoria Hotel, for creating a disturbance there, were before the magistrate this morning. They were remanded for further hearing.

POLICE REPORTS. A ladies pocket book found on Prince William street awaits an owner at the central police station. The rear door of B. P. Charlton & Co's. store was found open last night, by the police who secured it with rings and lock.

The police found the door of J. Brasscomb's store open last night and secured it with rings and lock. The People's Bank of Halifax, is opening a branch at Buctouche.

HUSBAND AND WIFE ARE LYING DEAD TOGETHER. Aged Gagetown Couple Pass Away—May Amend the Game Laws—The New Solicitor-General—Fredericton Curlers.

Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 8.—(Special)—Hon. J. F. Sweeney, the new solicitor general, was sworn into office by Governor Snowball in the executive council chamber at nine o'clock this morning. The oath was administered by J. Howe Dickson, clerk of the executive council and the solicitor general was afterwards warmly congratulated by his colleagues who were present at the ceremony. The members of the government left for St. John this morning, en route to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyd, a middle aged couple of Upper Gagetown, are dead at their home at that place. Mr. Boyd passed away at noon yesterday, and Mrs. Boyd followed at three o'clock this morning. Mrs. Boyd who had been a sufferer from paralysis for some months and Mr. Boyd's death was due to general debility. They leave no children. Mr. Boyd was a brother of Mrs. F. W. Fanjoy of this city.

Fredericton curlers enjoyed their first match of the season at the rink last evening, when four rink contests for supremacy. The curlers claim to be in the Maritime provinces to start work with stones and broom. Never before has a game been played here so early in the season.

Mrs. Nathaniel Brooks died here last evening after a fortnight's illness from confinement. She is survived by her husband and four children.

Mrs. Shepherd, widow of the late Leonard Shepherd, passed away at St. Mary's last night from cancer of the stomach. She was seventy-four years old and leaves two daughters.

It is said that at the approaching session of the legislature an amendment will be made to the game law, making it prohibitory for non-residents to hunt big game in New Brunswick without first obtaining a resident's guide. It is believed that the proposed change, besides doing justice to provincial game laws, will prevent the influx of sportsmen from the U. S. N. B. Debating Society have elected the following officers: President—H. P. Dole, '06; 2nd Vice—H. D. Dole, '07; 3rd Vice—H. D. Dole, '07; Secretary—H. D. Dole, '07; Treasurer—H. D. Dole, '07.

WINTER PORT. The Ramp Finished—Still Dumping Rubbish—The Steamers. Business at Sand Point was quiet this morning. Only two steamers are there at present, the Italian liner Corcordia and the Donaldson liner Concordia for Glasgow.

The ramp, which contractor G. S. Mayes has been building, is finished and painted. Large doors, salvaged from the wreck of the ship, are being used for the structure. This structure is certainly a masterpiece of engineering and will enable the city to handle 100 feet long, 20 feet wide and 10 feet high, and will be a great help to the city in the winter months.

Manifests for eleven cars barley, five cars corn, two cars grape nuts, one car provisions and one car ham, were received at the Custom House today. The above are United States products going through in transit to United Kingdom by winter port steamship.

Purina line steamship St. John City, Captain Doyler, left for London via Halifax, with general cargo. Steamship Manchester Corporation on late Atlantic express this morning for this port, with a general cargo.

HON. MR. SWEENEY Will Probably Not Be Opposed in Westmorland. Premier Tweedie, Hon. C. H. LeBlonde, Hon. L. R. Ferris and Hon. J. F. Sweeney, were passengers on the late Atlantic express this morning from Fredericton.

Hon. Mr. Sweeney was warmly congratulated by St. John friends on his appointment as solicitor general. He is not looking too well after his recent illness, but always shows a jovial and pleasant disposition.

In connection with the election in Westmorland, a prominent opposition worker from Westmorland today in conversation with a Times reporter, said that Sweeney would not be opposed.

Hon. Mr. Sweeney went through to Moncton, the other members of the government, including the premier, remaining in the city.

The opportunity which A. Gilmour Tailor and Clothier, places before buyers of business and evening dress suits, is a valuable one. A perusal of his advertisement should surely lead to the prompt acceptance of these propositions.

Two Special Suit Bargains

SEASONABLE AND UNPRECEDENTED FINE NEW GARMENTS AWAY UNDER VALUE. MEN'S $13.50, $15.00, $16.00 and $18.00 SUITS at $12.00.

This word is of 20th Century Clothing—the top notch of style and quality in ready-made clothing. Every pattern new. Materials are fancy tweeds in stripes and checks, with single and double-breasted coats—smartly tailored, good and good-looking suits, backed by the fullest guarantee.

The WHY of it? They were made for another clothier and on account of late delivery the order was cancelled. The 20th century people offered them to us at a low price, and we took a lot of the best. We have added a few of our own similar patterns, and have marked them all $12.00.

A remarkable opportunity for fine winter cloths at a SMALL PRICE. [Sizes 35 to 44.]

THE OTHER SPECIAL -- $25 DRESS SUITS at $20.

A limited number of 20th Century Dress Suits. On account of a mistake in the order offered to us at a considerable reduction. Made of correct dress suit cloth, silk lined, lapels all silk, silk back in vest, perfect fitting, or we make them so. Officers to be installed soon in Masonic Lodges should note this opportunity—one that in all probability will never occur again. Sizes, 35 to 42.
