GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SWEET KITTY BELLAIRS OPERA HOUSE MONDAY

Mae Murray, beautiful photodramatic star, who recently created such a sensation in the Jesse L. Lasky production of 'To Have and To Hold' will be seen at the Opera House on Monday in the Lasky-Belasco photodramatization of David Belasco's famous play 'Sweet Kitty Bellairs.'

The story has to do with the adventures of Mistress Kitty, the reigning beauty of Bath in the latter part of the eighteenth century. It is a Paramount picture.

Lady Julia, bride of a few weeks, heartbroken over the infatuation of her husband, Sir Jasper, for Lady Barbara Flyte, calls Mistress Kitty in for advice. Mistress Kitty suggests that Lady Julia make her husband jealous and to this end gives her a ringlet of red hair which Kitty has given her, promptly challenges Verney to a duel.

On Ladies' Day, when the Inniskilling Regiment first leave the floor, Kitty is recognized by her husband. He is about to run Verney through the floor as he is wearing Kitty's clothes, Julia slips out—Kitty bears the disgrace.

Captain Spicer leaves the floor, Kitty is humiliated. Verney is requested to resign from the army if he marries Kitty, and she, to save him from disgrace, tells him that her acceptance of him was merely a joke. Subsequently they are happily married.

The programme also includes a Patriotic Scenic, the latest word in globe-trotting, and a woodland picture, 'How Birds Feed Their Young' in beautiful natural colors.

DON'T MISS THIS AT GEM THEATRE TODAY

'A Child of the Paris Streets,' shown at the Gem last night, proved a stirring picture of Paris life, magnificently produced and a triumph in photography. It is one of the best pictures the Gem has shown. There also is a master comedy, 'The Lionel the Girl,' one of those that has made the Gem noted as the best in the city for this variety of pictures. See this programme this afternoon or tonight.

'AN ALIEN' TODAY ONLY AT THE OPERA HOUSE

An Allen, with George Behan, will be seen at the Opera House today only, one performance this afternoon at 2.15, two shows tonight at 7 and 9 o'clock. This is the same good photodrama that made such an impression here last May. Whether you like motion pictures or not, you will like 'An Alien,' as it carries a direct appeal to everybody.

MOVIE ACTRESS RISKS LIFE

Helen Holmes, the most fearless actress of all filmdom, is soon to appear in the most thrilling photo novel, 'Mountain Railroad Life,' written by Frank H. Spearman. The vast sum of half a million dollars is now being spent to make 'The Girl and the Game' the most successful series of pictures ever produced. 'The Girl and the Game' is a series of fifteen two-act features, each one being...

Protect Your Eyes

Those who wear glasses have given extra good vision are apt to be rather nervous and easily alarmed about their eyes. The common mistake is to wear eye-glasses, which is a great mistake, which was never above the average.

Good vision is priceless. Health, happiness and prosperity depend upon it. Yet few eyes are being persistently irritated and little attention is given to preserve their usefulness.

The symptoms of eye-strain should be heeded.

THE EVENT OF THE YEAR IS THIS AFTERNOON

This is the Day of Tipperary Mary's Picnic at Torryburn

There is little left to be said about this outing, for the whole story has been told. Just remember these few things: That you can get special trains from the depot at 1.30, 2.30 and 3.30. They start leaving Torryburn for the city at 7, 9 and 10.30. Stays will be made at Coldbrook and Brookville coming and going. Automobiles will be strictly watched and cared for on the grounds and motor boats may be moored at Kenforth wharf. Returned soldiers invited to be guests by coming to the trains. Sports, games, and a great big time.

'A Letter From Old Santa'

North Pole, Aug. 18, 1910. Mrs. Z. A. Young, President, First West Side Soldiers' Comforts Circle, 124 Grosvenor street, St. John, N. B.: Dear Madam:— I shall be delighted to accept the kind invitation of your circle to be present at the 'Soldiers' Christmas Stoking,' to be held at the Curling Rink, Rodney street, West St. John, September 12 to 15.

For many years I visited the homes of these soldier boys every Christmas time, and looked at their happy sleeping faces, dreaming of what 'Santa' was to bring them—and now that they are far away amid the noise and smoke of battle, I am more than glad of this opportunity to be still 'Santa' to them in September, so that you can get their Christmas boxes ready and shipped overseas to reach the boys by Christmas Eve.

My only son, 'Young Santa,' has gone to the war, and I would be very myself, only I am a little past the age limit. Mrs. Santa Claus requests me to have my hair cut and whiskers trimmed before I go to St. John in September, but I am afraid if I did that I would not look natural.

Of course I cannot bring my sleigh and reindeer, so I will come in my car. I hope that the new elevator will be built in Water street by that time (?). I always like to go through Water street, however, I will come anyway, for I could go right up over the elevator. My auto is a good one, I got the best I could afford.

Respectfully yours, (Signed) SANTA CLAUS. P. S.—Very warm weather at the Pole this summer.

No 'Same Place' Then.

'Herbert,' said a school teacher, turning to a bright youngster, 'can you tell me what lightning is?' 'Yes, ma'am,' was the ready reply of the boy. 'Lightning is streaks of electricity.'

'Well, that may pass,' said the teacher, encouragingly. 'Now tell me why it is that lightning never strikes twice in the same place.' 'Because,' answered Herbert, 'after it hits once the same place ain't there any more.'

FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of Sergeant-Major Riley of the Salvation Army will take place this afternoon from the Charlotte street barracks, services being conducted by Assistant Green both in the barracks and at the grave. Interment will be in Fernhill.

ONE THIS MORNING

C. H. McCafferty of Millidge avenue, city, was the only recruit secured today. He signed up with the 29th American Battalion.

Who'll Pay That Mortgage?

That mortgage—or other indebtedness—may cause you no worry. You know you can repay it if all goes well. But there's the rub. What if things go wrong? Supposing you should die—could your wife pay the mortgage without your income?

And the annual investment required is very moderate—moderate at least when you consider the peace of mind it will afford you.

Look at this problem squarely—don't dodge—don't wait. The advantages of life insurance are available only to those in good health. Send to-day for information about a policy to suit your particular need. To-morrow may be too late.
