BASEBALL

Carigan Sticks to It
Bill Carigan, who informed of the sale of the Red Sox, said the new ownership would in no wise change his plans—that he was done with baseball.
Want Landis as Head
Chicago, Nov. 3.—Federal Judge Landis is declared by a morning newspaper to be the choice of several major league baseball magnates for chairman of the National commission in case that position should be vacated by August Herman. The attitude of Judge Landis on the subject, however, was not stated, the jurist apparently not having been advised that his name was to be brought into the list of possibilities for the position.
Judge Landis' well known admiration of the national game is given as a reason for the suggestion of his name in connection with a place on the commission.

Colored Player Dead

Brockton, Nov. 2.—William H. Ashport, aged 29, one of the best known colored baseball players in New England, died today at his home here, following a brief illness. He was born in Texas but came to this state when a child and had spent most of his life in this city. He played semi-professional baseball in all parts of the state. He was also an exceptionally good football player.

Willard Dodges Officers

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 2.—"Jess" Willard, heavyweight pugilistic champion, who was looked as the stellar attraction of the Sells-Floto circus, which showed here yesterday, eluded constables who attempted to serve papers on him in an action to recover $1,500 alleged to be due for training expenses here last winter for the Johnson fight. Willard did not appear at either performance of the circus.
An automobile owned by Willard and one owned by "Tom" Jones, his manager, were attached on a claim issued through a local justice of the peace on complaint of John M. Wyatt, vice-president of the First National Bank. Mr. Wyatt alleged that the champion and his manager owe the bank several hundred dollars.
Willard and Jones and "Jack" Carley, their press agent, left the Paso del Norte Hotel early last evening leaving the two automobiles behind.

BILLIARDS

Hoppe Outclassed Sutton
St. Louis, Nov. 2.—William F. Hoppe of New York ran 500 in billiards last night to 95 for G. Butler Sutton of Chicago in the third block of their 1,500 point 182 ball billiard match. The complete score for the match was: Hoppe 1,000; Sutton 95. Hoppe had a high run of 197 and another of 108. Sutton's best was 51. The play was completed in 11 innings.

Paid $675,000
For Boston Club

New Owners Want Carigan To Remain as Manager; Why Lannin Sold

Boston, Nov. 2.—The new owners of the Boston Red Sox, who are well known in theatrical circles, paid $675,000 to Joseph J. Lannin for the world's championship baseball club. Mr. Frazee is the owner of the Longacre Theatre in Chicago, and the Call Theatre in New York, besides being interested in many theatrical enterprises throughout the country. He is only thirty-six years old. Nearly twenty years ago, when a mere lad, he was manager of the Peoria club of the western league and has always been a great lover of the game.
The new owners have made no arrangements for a new manager and said that the position was certainly open for Bill Carigan, if he would return to the game.
If he refuses to return, the new owners have two or three other baseball men in sight. They are satisfied, however, that they can show Bill Carigan that he should pass at least one more year at Fenway Park for the purpose of making the Red Sox a three time winner, as they believe Carigan has the goods for the work.
Mr. Lannin, explaining his reasons for selling the club, said last night:

"I am too much of a fan to run a baseball club. I found that it was interfering with my health, as I always have had more or less trouble with my heart. I thought this the proper time to sell, as good customers were on hand to buy for cash. I am pleased to find the new owners good sportsmen, great lovers of the game, and I am sure the Boston public will be pleased to receive them in the same manner they received me."
"I must say that I have had very good luck in baseball. In my three years the team finished in second place once and won the championship twice."
Mr. Lannin said that, while he is out of baseball in Boston, he is still controlling owner of the Buffalo International League club, with Patsy Donovan, the successful manager.
"We win championships with the Buffalo club," he said, "but we don't make any money. I feel quite sure that some of the people in that city will take the club off my hands pretty soon, as I am willing to give up all my interests in the game."

SERG. VENIOT OF THE 26TH HONORED

A large number of friends of Sergeant Veniot of the "Fighting 26th," assembled in the Moose Hall, Union street, last evening, and held a dance and buffet supper in honor of the gallant sergeant. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Arlington Orchestra of the Unique Theatre, which fact enhanced the enjoyment of the evening greatly, for it is seldom such excellent music is rendered at an impromptu dance as was heard last evening. Mr. Davis of the orchestra, was heard in several delightful solos. Mrs. R. Allan Christie chaperoned the party. The catering was done by Mrs. L. Tapley of the Unique Theatre.

HAD BRONCHITIS For Years

Bronchitis comes from a neglected cold and if, neglected, will surely turn into pneumonia. The first symptom is a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest.
The phlegm raised from the bronchial tubes is at first of a light color, but as the disease progresses it becomes of a yellowish or greenish color and is very often hard to raise.
Dr. Wood's Norway is just the remedy you require as it loosens the phlegm and heals the lungs and bronchial tubes.
Mrs. Claus, Bressan, Amherst, N. S., writes: "I was troubled for years with bronchitis, and could not find any relief. I was especially bad on a damp day. I went to a druggist and asked him for something to stop the constant tickling in my throat. He gave me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I found gave me instant relief. I think it is the best medicine for bronchitis I know of. I now take care that I always have a bottle on hand."
"Dr. Wood's" is the genuine, put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 25c. and 50c.
Manufactured for the past 25 years by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
The Chocolate Shop, Charlotte street, E. Lawlor and L. Comeau were the promoters of the entertainment.

MUNITION WORKS CANTERENS

Furnish Food That Neutralizes the British High Cost of Living.

In order to protect the munition workers of England from the "high cost of living" peril now prevalent not only in the belligerent, but in neutral countries as well, a number of well-known English women have established food kitchens where the men and women who make ammunition and other munitions for the soldiers at the front may get the best food at cost prices.
The story of this work in behalf of the workers in this all-important industry, as recently issued by the Official Press Bureau reads:

"The all around price of food in England has risen by 68 per cent. since the outbreak of war, compared with an increase of 116 per cent. in Berlin and 178 per cent. in Vienna. Some staple foods in England have, however, gone up at a much sharper angle. Bread, for example, which was nine cents per four-pound loaf in July 1914, is now twenty cents a loaf, and eggs, which in normal times never cost more than five cents in England, even in winter, are now seven and eight cents apiece, due largely to the stoppage of all supplies from Russia and the Near East. Sugar is seven cents a pound dearer than in normal times, and potatoes, butter, cheese and bacon nearly half as much again dearer than in 1914. Best cuts of beef and mutton are 44 to 48 cents a pound, as against 28 and 32 cents normally."

"For all these rises the munition workers of London are living at amazingly cheap rates, thanks to the establishment of special canteens for their convenience. These canteens are in no sense charity-run. They are, however, rent-free, and all the service at them, except that of skilled cooks, is rendered voluntarily, society ladies giving their time day and night to act as waitresses and helpers generally."

"As a consequence the meals provided are astonishingly cheap. Lady Lawrence, chairman of the Munition Workers' canteen committee, which sends out 1,200 voluntary workers to the munition canteens in the London area every week, says a specimen dinner for girl munition workers costs eighteen cents, made up as follows:

	Cents.
Plate of meat, best English	10
Potatoes	2
Second vegetable	2
Suet pudding with jam	4
Total	18

"In the men's canteen the meat is in larger helpings at fourteen cents. Cakes and cups of tea and milk are two cents."

Buying in large quantities for the canteens is a consideration in price. Tea, for example, is bought by the ton."
