STONE CHURCH CURATE CHOSEN BY ST. GEORGE'S

Rev. J. Unsworth Goes to West End Rectory in October

IN SUCCESSION TO REV. W. H. SAMPSON

Rev. W. H. Britton Resigns as Pastor of St. Matthews

Rev. John Unsworth, curate of St. John's (Stone) church was unanimously chosen last evening as the new rector of St. George's church, West End, and will take up his duties there on the first Sunday in October.

MANY YEARS RECTOR.

Until that time the present rector, Rev. W. H. Sampson, will continue to conduct the services. He has been in charge of St. George's for nearly 20 years and it was the regret of some months ago that his people heard of his intention to retire from the active work of the ministry. At that time effort was made to have him withhold his resignation and the offer was made to furnish a curate to assist in the duties if he would remain as rector, but his desire was to give up active work. It will be of interest and pleasure to his congregation and others of the community to learn that Rev. Mr. Sampson will continue to reside in West Saint John. On the coming of his successor he will take up residence in a home that he has built in Prince street.

THE NEW RECTOR.

Rev. Mr. Unsworth has been curate of St. John's church since last September. He came here from the Church of the Redeemer, in Toronto, of which Rev. Canon Armstrong is now rector. Rev. Mr. Unsworth had been curate there. Previous to that he had been in church work in the Northwest and the Yukon. He is of English birth and has been in Canada since he was 17 years of age. His mother is residing in Brantford, Ont. In the Great War, Rev. Mr. Unsworth went overseas in a fighting branch of the service and on return after the world conflict took up his studies for the church at Wycliffe College, Toronto. He was ordained deacon in 1922 and made priest by His Lordship Bishop Richardson in Stone church last year.

ST. MATTHEW'S.

A special meeting of the Saint John Presbytery of the Continuing Church is to be held in Knox church this afternoon to deal with the resignation of Rev. W. H. Britton as minister of St. Matthew's church, Douglas avenue, which has been formally tendered. Mr. Britton is out of the city and could not be communicated with this morning in reference to his future plans, but it was said he is to become minister of the Oxford-Pugwash church in Nova Scotia. This is a larger congregation and is located near to Mr. Britton's home.

"How do you know?" asked the reporter.

"Because I know they ain't no better turnip than the old one," said Hiram.

"You don't believe improvement is possible, then?" said the reporter.

"The turnips my gran'father ate is good enough for me," said Hiram.

"I ain't given to no fool notions," said Hiram.

"You really mean what you say?" asked the reporter.

"You know darn well I don't," said Hiram. "But No. 2 turnip is full of fellers that thinks just that way—and that's what's wrong with us—By Hen!"

FALLS NOW OFFER NEW ATTRACTION

Many Painters at Work on Highway Bridge Give Thrill

Dismantling of Cantilever Adds to Picture of Activity Over River.

Tourists visiting the Reversing Falls have something additional to see there now besides the two-way torrent. The government highway bridge is being repainted, not only in its visible parts but throughout the whole structure, including the intricate ironwork of the spandrels underneath. Staging, which appear like mere scantling suspended by threads, hang in scores of places and the workmen climb from height to height as if bearing charmed lives.

BIG CREW EMPLOYED

Contractor J. Johnston & Son of Princess street have crews of varying size on the job, reaching greatest numerical strength last week when 116 men piled brush from shore to shore. Practically every unemployed painter in town has been engaged rushing the contract to completion and considerable remains to be done. The bridge was last painted in 1920 by the Dominion Bridge Co. of Montreal and previous to that in 1917. It was opened for traffic about 12 years ago.

THE CANTILEVER

Coincident with the painting of the New Brunswick Government highway bridge is the work of removing the old cantilever C. P. R. bridge adjoining. To sightseers the activity on both structures supplies plenty of diversion, indeed quite thrilling. The first stage in the taking down of the railway bridge is now in progress, that of removing the wooden sleepers. In the centre of the bridge there is already a wide gap straight through to the founding tide and the men, engaged on the job, look about from beam to beam of iron with a nonchalance that fills the watchers with apprehension.

SERIOUS CHARGE IS MADE AFTER RAID

Conditions in Prince Edward Street Home Told of—Walter Axtell Charged.

A raid on a house in the rear of 62 Prince Edward street last night by Detective Saunders and the police resulted this morning in a serious charge being brought against Walter Axtell for an alleged offence against his sister. The other arrested at the time of the raid and charged with being inmates of the house were Mrs. Elizabeth Robichaud and Annie Axtell, sister of the man. A three year old daughter of Mrs. Robichaud was found in the house and looked after by the police.

The case started under a disorderly house charge and Joseph Axtell, brother of the defendant, went on the stand. Detective Saunders testified that he had visited the place last night. After hearing the evidence so far the magistrate suggested that a more serious charge should be laid against Walter Axtell and this was done. He was then remanded to jail.

The magistrate then turned to Mrs. Robichaud and said that he understood that she had previously been in the municipal home and he thought perhaps they would have to send her back. "I am not going to no Alma House, absolutely nothing doin'" was the response from the woman. However the magistrate pointed out that she had nothing to say on the matter. She was sent into jail. Arrangements will be made to look after the little girl.

CASE DISMISSED

Louis Sfrre Cleared of Charge—Magistrate Makes Comment on Matter.

The case against Louis Sfrre, charged with stealing a barrel of lime and a barrel of rock wall, valued at $6, from Mrs. C. Isaac, was dismissed this morning by Magistrate Henderson on this morning after several witnesses were heard. Mrs. Isaac told of having the lime and rock wall stored in her cellar. She said that the defendant had not used very much of it repairing her house and that he had taken the rest after moving out of her flat.

The defendant denied that he had taken the rock wall. He said that her cellar had been flooded and this had spoiled her lime and rock wall there. He declared that the barrels he had taken were his own property. He added that he had offered to finish the work on the wall of her house with his own lime.

Magistrate Henderson remarked that it looked very much like a case of spite to him as the defendant's wife had had the plaintiff arrested for assaulting her last week and fined $20. He pointed out that there was no evidence convicting the man, and as the present employer of the defendant gave him a good, honest name, he would dismiss the case.
