The Johnson Case.

New York, Sept. 19—Attorneys for Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and for the St. Louis and Cleveland club owners, today filed an answer in the suit brought against them by the New York American League club in the case of Carl Mays. The answer follows closely the lines laid down by the defendants' counsel in arguing the motion for a continuance of the temporary injunction which the New York club secured against Johnson, pending his trial.

record of twenty-six home runs is not in danger.

Cravath of Philadelphia is leading the National League batters with an average of .336, five points ahead of Thorpe of Boston, the runner-up. The Philadelphia manager is in front in home runs with eleven. Rouseh of Cincinnati is being pressed by Myers of Brooklyn for total base honors. Rouseh has 214 total bases, while Myers has one less. Burns of New York moved Groh of Cleveland out of the scoring honors, and leads his rival by one run. Burns registered seventy-nine times while the Cincinnati captain crossed the plate seventy-eight times.

New York, Sept. 20—Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion, is cleaning up the coin at the rate of from $10,000 to $20,000 a week, according to estimates of his friends who say that he is receiving a sum between those figures in his theatrical engagement. The engagement still has several weeks to run. After it terminates Jack plans to take a short rest terminates Jack

Having been successful in business he could, of course, satisfy his love for the water. At his float at the Boston end of the Craigie Bridge "Jim," in addition to rowing, conducted a little work of charity or mercy or whatever one may be pleased to call it. Anyhow, without the oarsman telling it, the fact became generally known that driftwood never dritted by his float. This he collected and modestly distributed among the needy families of the West End, and needy families there were many in those days in that locality. Generosity was a quality of which he and his brother were known to have had an abundance from childhood. Their good wishes were always evinced by their advice and not seldom material help to aspiring oarsmen.
