

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1918

POST MORTEM.

When we are dead,
When still the heart, and cold the brow,
And we have passed from mortal ken;
The world could do without us now,
The world can do without us then—
When we are dead!

When we are dead!
The birds will sing the same sweet strain,
Although we are not nigh to hear;
And still, refreshed with gentle rain,
The corn will ripen in the ear—
When we are dead!

When we are dead!
The flowers shall waft the same perfume,
The children's shouts will fill the air;
And hopes will fade, and hopes will bloom,
The same as though we never were—
When we are dead!

When we are dead!
Still sparkling eyes to love will call,
When ours are closed to every scene;
Fond words from loving lips will fall,
The same as though we'd never been—
When we are dead!

When we are dead!
Ah! surely when with life we part,
Some kindly word or action here
Will be remembered, and some heart
Still then in sorrow shed a tear—
When we are dead.

HOPE A. THOMPSON.

UNTIL THE END

"Give till your heart says 'stop'" the poster reads.
"Give till it hurts," a voice takes up the cry,
"Count not the sacrifice too great at home
For those who do and die."

Brave words are these; words of our Nation's own,
Who travel o'er the haunted seas to slay.
The burden of the white man's load, too great
For brothers there to bear.

But Thou, O Spirit of our God, descend
Upon Thy people, born in Liberty;
Teach us to say, "We give unto the end,
Until the world be free."

—Leonora S. Ashton in the Red Cross Magazine.

New Zealand's winter comes in our midsummer, and last July was one of the severest winter months in the history of the Island commonwealth. Nearly half a million sheep were lost as a consequence of the storms that prevailed then.

Gold Soap is not only solid, but solid. This is proved by its exceptionally heavy weight and by the way it lasts. Instead of crumbling and softening, Gold Soap wears away very slowly and evenly. It can be used down to the thinnest wafer.

Gold Soap is made in the Procter & Gamble Factories at Hamilton, Canada.

DOMINION RAYNSTERS
"Made-in-Canada" Raincoats

Here's The Waterproof Test
—MAKE IT—

If you want to be sure that the Dominion Raynster you buy is absolutely waterproof—regardless of the maker's name on guarantee label—make this practical test and satisfy yourself.

Spread the coat over a dry box or barrel and pour two or three quarts of water into the hollow made near the shoulders. If no water passes through the cloth in 24 hours, count the coat waterproof.

Our trademark takes all the doubt and disappointments out of Dominion Raynsters.

When you find it in a raincoat, you can count on getting a real tailor-made coat—as well cut as any Spring and Fall Coat—and just as smart and stylish for every-day wear.

The best stores that carry clothing for men, women and children also carry Dominion Raynsters. Ask to see the new styles, and the guarantee label of the oldest Rubber Company in Canada.
