

ER.
 timent in the lively Oracles of truth. Our Minutes will also inform you of our additions. Our present interview has been delightful and refreshing, the Lord being in the midst of us. And now dear Brethren we wish you much of the Divine presence in your present convention. We also wish for a continuance of your profitable correspondence.
 Asking an interest in your Prayers, we subscribe ourselves your Brethren in the faith and patience of the Saints, Farewell.

Signed in behalf of the Association,

Theodore S. Harding, moderator.

Thomas Ansley, clerk.

