

- Q. 5. "Did you go in through the door this time, and did you know that the door was usually locked?"
- A. 5. "It was usually open any other time that I had been up there for kerosene."
- Q. 6. "Have you at any time had to report to the person in charge of the petrol stores?"
- A. 6. "No."
- Q. 7. "Did you know that this was a petrol stores?"
- A. 7. "No."
- Q. 8. "What did you think it was?"
- A. 8. "I thought that it was for kerosene and oil and any time that I have got petrol, we got it at the roundabout."
- Q. 9. "In order to climb in was it necessary to move the petrol?"
- A. 9. "No."
- Q. 10. "You were just climbing in over the broken glass through the window?"
- A. 10. "Yes."

The accused is questioned by the Court.

- Q. 1. "This window was broken and it seems that it was cracked or broken in the afternoon, yet no one has stated if the glass was on the outside or on the inside."
- A. 1. "I do not know, Sir."
- Q. 2. "You are quite sure that you do not remember whether the glass was on the outside or on the inside?"
- A. 2. "I do not know, Sir."
- Q. 3. "Was it not necessary to take any of the glass out to get in the window?"
- A. 3. "No, Sir."

A Shorthand Writer having been sworn, R. P. 38B has been dispensed with.

.....
(W. A. Capelle) Major, R.C.E.
President.