A. All that I know is that we built up that house it was for Peter George.

Q. Was Peter George to pay Mr. Truthwaite anything for it?

A. No, the house was built up for this man because he was working for Thomas Truthwaite. We built up that house on the---

Q. What was to happen to the house when he stopped working for Thomas Truthwaite? A. He was put there because he was a servant of Thomas Truthwaite, that was all.

Q. In fact you do not know what the arrangement was, do you?

A. No more than what Mr. Truthwaite had told me, he had to find him a house because he had a family.

Q. You worked for Thomas Truthwaite at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were married in 1860? A. Yes.

Q. Did he build a house for you? A. Oh, no. I did not want anybody to build a house for me, I could build a house for myself. I was independent at that time.

Q. Did you get paid anything for building that house for Peter George? A. Yes.

Q. How much did you get paid?

A. I used to get $1.50 a day.

Q. How many days were you occupied in building it?

A. Oh, I could not tell you because I was paid both for working for that place and for building stables and things like that.

Q. For whom were you building the stables?

A. Mr. Truthwaite, of course.

Q. You ~~are~~ not in a position to say whether Mr. Truthwaite was not paid by Peter George for your services?

A. No,

Q. You don't know? A. No.

Commissioner--

Q. The stables that you built were on which side of the river?
