

of government and courses of study adopted by the College are in every way well fitted to secure the two-fold object of building up a Christian character and insuring thorough scholarship.

CONNECTED WITH McMASTER UNIVERSITY.

Most of the subjects in the Fifth Year are taken in the classes of McMaster University without extra charge. It will be observed that one of the courses of the College leads directly to University matriculation. It is to be hoped that many of the students of the College will be content with nothing short of a full University course, with the accompanying degree. One of the conditions under which the College was founded was that the Arts and Theological classes of McMaster University should be opened in perpetuity to such of its students as may be qualified to pursue University and Theological courses. It is also hoped that many of our young women, especially those who have consecrated their lives to Christian work, either at home or abroad, will avail themselves of the advantages open to them of attending the lectures in Arts and Theology in the University, either as matriculates or occasional students.

ADMISSION.

Application for admission should be made to the Principal before coming to the School. Such application should be accompanied by a certificate of character, and a statement of the age and scholarship of the applicant, and of the course of study she desires to pursue, and blank forms will be furnished for this purpose. None, however, need apply for admission but such as are prepared to comply heartily with all the requirements of the College, and devote their entire time and energy to the work prescribed. The superior advantages for study and for the development of a true womanhood which the College affords are intended for such only as desire to make the best possible use of their school life, and who can, therefore, enter fully into the spirit of earnest work which pervades every department of the institution.

Names of pupils will be registered in the order of their application, and choice of rooms given, for the most part, in the
