WESTMORLAND LIBERALS MEET

Party Convention to be Held May 22nd.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson Will Explain the Situation—His Constituents are Warmly With Him.

MONCTON, May 12.—At a meeting of the four provincial members, held in the Board of Trade rooms here yesterday, Hon. Mr. Emmerson being present, it was decided to hold a convention of Westmorland Liberals in Moncton May 22. It is understood that Mr. Emmerson desires to explain the circumstances attending his recent resignation to his constituents and it is believed that they in turn will take this opportunity of reaffirming their hearty confidence in him and of giving him renewed assurance of their support. All of those present at yesterday's meeting are as heartily Emersonian men as they ever were and claim to be absolutely confident that his character will be fully vindicated and his office restored within a few months. The plan is to hold the convention in the curling rink on the afternoon of May 22, to be followed by a mass meeting in the evening at which Mr. Emmerson will speak. Mr. Emmerson has arranged with Mr. Butler, Deputy Minister of Railways, to meet him in St. John during next week and consult with the St. John harbor commission. The visit will be made either on May 21 or 23, probably the latter date.

KISSED BY MASTER, SHE ASKS $10,000 DAMAGES

German Girl, 16, Has Employer Arrested and Sent to Jail.

CLEVELAND, May 11.—Maria Weber has sued Samuel Joachim, by whom she was employed as a domestic, for $10,000, because he kissed her. She has also had Joachim arrested for assault and battery. Maria is a German girl, 16 years old, comely, with rosy cheeks and a rosy mouth. After dinner on March 25, the first day of her employment, Joachim tried to hug and kiss her. When Joachim was arrested on the charge of assault and battery she testified: "I believe it is a sin to be kissed by a man unless you love him and he loves you."

Judge Fletcher indorsed these sentiments in a lecture on the evil of kissing, and then fined Joachim $100 costs and three months in the workhouse. "Surely a stolen kiss is worth $10,000," says Miss Weber. "Indeed, a kiss is almost invaluable."

DOVER, Del., May 11.—The coroner today began an inquest into the death of Horace Marvin, Jr., who disappeared from the farm of his father, Dr. Horace Marvin, and whose body was discovered nine weeks later in a marsh near his home. After taking considerable testimony, which threw no light on the mystery, the coroner adjourned the inquest until Monday. The inquest was held behind closed doors.

FUTURE CONTROL OF BOSTON & MAINE RY.

Rumors of Sale to N. Y., N. H. and Hartford Co., Confirmed

Deal Involves Exchange of Stock, Share for Share—Negotiations Likely to Take Some Weeks

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 11.—The reported future control of the Boston and Maine railroad system by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company appears to be fully confirmed here. The deal involves at some future time an exchange of stock, share for share practically, though possibly through the medium of an intermediary company. Some weeks are likely to elapse before the arrangement is fully carried through. It is also ascertained positively that the proposition has the support of President Lucius Tuttle of the Boston and Maine road, and his directors upon the one hand and of the New York Central and its allied interests on the other. In connection with the deal, it is also understood that the New York, New Haven and Hartford will secure considerable trackage rights over the Boston and Maine. What concessions are made to the New York Central are not known, but there is a strong belief that they involve a transfer to the New York Central of the Ontario and Western, which it be recalled at the time of its purchase President Mellen tried to exchange for the Boston and Maine. When it acquires the Boston and Maine the N. Y., N. H. and H. Company will own lines involving not merely construction, but much faster train service to Boston and New York. If the New Haven officials decide that the Boston and Maine has excellent opportunities which have not been utilized, much more important will be the future joint operations of the two roads.

Very large economies are also expected from the unity of the two systems, the relative decrease of cost of operation and large continuities of train service. No doubt is felt in railroad circles here that the N. Y., N. H. and H. will, as in case of its system, pursue a policy of consolidating subsidiary lines and corporations of which a great number have come into existence since President Mellen took charge some four years ago.

By the acquisition of the Boston and Maine, the New York, New Haven and Hartford Company becomes a corporation controlling almost entirely the Sound boat traffic, large coastwise steamship lines having connected with many through railroad lines of traffic from New York, northward to Portland, the owners of nearly the whole trolley system in New England and more than doubles its own large steamship traffic.

New York Central men competent to speak for the road said today that that system would interpose no obstacle to the perfection of the New Haven section. Chairman Jackson of the Massachusetts railroad commission said today with reference to the reports in circulation that the deal was a success.

"If control has passed, it is probable that it has been brought about by the transfer of the holdings to individuals. There is no law against that. As for the buying of one road by another, the Massachusetts law says that the domestic corporation shall not acquire the stock of another. The New Haven claims that it is not a domestic corporation, but both a domestic and foreign, and can use the money earned in other states as it pleases. The principle involved is now being tried out by the attorney general before the state supreme court. He is proving the contention that the New Haven cannot acquire the stock of street railways."

ENTERTAINED BY KING EDWARD

Colonial Ladies Met Royal Party at Buckingham

Premier Bond Pleased with Scheme of Leeds Scholars in Exchanging Post Cards With Colonial Children

LONDON, May 12.—King Edward and other members of the royal family received the ladies of the colonial party at Buckingham Palace. Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Miss Melvin Jones, Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. L. P. Brodeur and Madame Brodeur and Miss Dutre were present. The guests were entertained at tea. The weather was charming. Scholars at Leeds have for years exchanged letters and picture post cards with other children in the colonies. Premier Bond, among other premises, has sent a message to them expressing his pleasure at the scheme, and asking the boys to endeavor to appreciate the words "British Empire" mean direct effort towards bringing the component parts into closer union.

Hon. L. P. Brodeur, attending a meeting of the Mission for Deep Sea Fisheries, expressed deep interest in the work.

Premier Campbell-Bannerman, speaking at Manchester, said he was certain if a poll were taken of the self-governing colonies, there would not be many people who would be in favor of forcing, even by the gentle art of persuasion, upon this country the fundamental change in its fiscal policy.

It is stated that Hon. L. P. Brodeur will purchase two new ice breakers. General Botha sailed for South Africa today. He said it had been one of the greatest pleasures of his life to attend the conference and meet representatives from the various colonies. He expressed the wish that the friendships formed be strengthened.

STRONG ATTACK ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

An Impressive Sermon by Rev. Father Hazleton, S. J.

The Daily Tribute to the "False God," in This City Staggered Him

Rev. Fr. Hazleton, S. J., of Montreal, was the preacher at the High Mass in the Cathedral yesterday. There was an unusually large congregation present. The sermon was of nearly an hour's duration and strikingly impressive, retaining the closest attention of the large gathering. The subject was taken from the Gospel of the day—St. John xv. 26, xvi. 1-4. The main points of the discourse centered upon the double testimony that our Lord foretold would be rendered to himself: "The Spirit of Truth who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me; and you shall give testimony."

The preacher began by showing the advent of a new and extraordinary power introduced into the world, but a few days after the ascension of our Lord. The power of course came with the descent of the Holy Ghost on the first Pentecost; and this power at once manifested itself in the very striking change of heart, working an absolute renewal of character in the apostles. The work of this Divine mission was immediately begun. Testimony is at once borne to our Lord, they declare themselves witnesses of the marvels which He had wrought beginning in Jerusalem, extending through Judea and Samaria to the remotest bounds of the earth. Imperial Rome became the special theatre of their apostolic labors. The Eternal City is started. Extraordinary interest is manifested in the new message and at once the inquiry becomes general: "Whence this wonderful power and who are these that teach such unheard-of lessons?" They are the followers of the crucified; His witnesses in Imperial Rome tell the same; become general throughout the empire, "Christianity is another Christ."

Pagan Rome refused recognition both to the divine message and its heralds, the spirit of the world and the spirit of Christ coming in conflict. The work of the apostles, however, triumphs, millions taking the place of the few who are pat to death in testimony, the apostles themselves at last being seized and sent with their blood the martyr's crown. "Thus they bore testimony to the uttermost bounds of the earth."

But it was not only to the apostles that the divine dedication was made. "You shall bear testimony of Me," not to their times alone, but to all Christians, in every age and in every land. The man was located in Amherst, working for the Robt Engineering Company, and the Amherst police authorities have been communicated with. The woman's letter was most pitiful, saying she was in straitened circumstances with her child. She last heard from her husband four months ago.

While at work at the Public Wharf, Friday, engaged in unloading the schooner "Lise," John W. Tiller, struck by a rolling log of masonry and tumbled off the platform which had been built between the side of the vessel and the wharf. He dropped 32 feet, falling on his feet and was not hurt. Four or five inches of snow fell on Monday Sunday afternoon and evening, resembling a winter scene. Under the influence of the warm sun the snow disappeared today.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Fire caused a loss estimated at $200,000 tonight in the building at the corner of Sixth avenue and Thirtieth street, occupied by Sheppard, Knapp & Co., dealers in furniture and carpets.

general our people are religious and honest enough, yet I have noticed that throughout the land the giant enemy that oppresses the Master is the vice that reigns supreme in the temple that is reared against His temple.

"We may suppose a visitor from Japan seeking for a proper religious basis for his national greatness, determines to visit the people where the same doctrines are still taught and the same virtues are still practiced as he finds in the Acts of the Apostles.

"He lands at San Francisco where the virtues of Christianity do not efface him to any great extent. Passing through the great commercial centers without being overawed by any striking examples of heroic virtue, he finally visits the good city of St. John, where the honesty and the piety of the people are a source of edification, but where the tribute flowing daily into the coffers of the false god surprises and staggers him. He reads in the Acts of the Apostles, that they loved one another, that Roman senators once Christian had thrown their wealth at the feet of the apostles in favor of their less fortunate brethren and now liberated slaves.

"Yet here are men professing to be Christians, with broken hearted mothers, sorrowing wives, starving children, because their wealth has gone to decorate altars of the false gods. What a contradiction. "See how these Christians love one another," said even the pagan Romans. What a reversion of feeling must the Japanese visitor experience at the sight of such a contrast of early Christian love as he witnesses in the so-called Christian home where the drunkard sacrifices the dearest interests of his family to his own debased appetite.

A touching appeal was then made that all might exercise the great virtue of self-sacrifice in imitation of the crucified Lord. The disciples must follow the footsteps of the Master. "But there are footsteps dyed in blood, and lead over Calvary. But while Calvary means death, in the case of Christ it means life, the resurrection and this is followed by the triumphant ascension. By following His footsteps the disciple passes through death to the glory of a like resurrection and an eternal triumph."

MONCTON PASTOR ON LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Rev. Mr. Thomas Impatient With New Town Council—Roxbury, Mass., Woman's Husband Missing

MONCTON, N. B., May 12.—The Moncton hotels, liquor dealers and drug stores which are supposed to conceal barrooms were scathingly criticized tonight by Rev. H. E. Thomas, who preached in Wesley Memorial Church on temperance conditions here and elsewhere. He claimed that despite the fact that there was a large temperance vote at the time of the civic elections, the local conditions have not improved under the administration of the present council. He said that the four aldermen who voted to retain the former police chief should be called on for an explanation of their stand. Mr. Thomas urged that a raid be made on the barrooms in Moncton, and that second and third offenses be enforced. Speaking of the effects of the liquor traffic, he claimed it was the cause of the majority of accidents, the cause of the loss of life and property, the cause of the loss of money, the cause of the loss of health, the cause of the loss of honor, the cause of the loss of respect, the cause of the loss of peace, the cause of the loss of joy, the cause of the loss of life.

Chief Rideout on Saturday received a letter from Mrs. Hugh Entwistle of Roxbury, Mass., inquiring for the whereabouts of her husband, who left here a year and a half ago. The man was located in Amherst, working for the Robt Engineering Company, and the Amherst police authorities have been communicated with. The woman's letter was most pitiful, saying she was in straitened circumstances with her child. She last heard from her husband four months ago.

CORBY DISTILLERY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Will be Rebuilt Soon as Possible—Engineer Had Narrow Escape and Is in Serious Condition.

BELLEVILLE, May 12.—Fire which was discovered about five o'clock this morning totally destroyed the manufacturing department of the Corby distillery, situated at Corbyville, about four miles from this city. The fire was discovered by Henry Hubbs, fireman in the engine room, who on opening the door leading to the distillery found building in flames. The fire had gained such headway that Hubbs' escape was almost cut off, and in making his way out he was badly burned and scalded, besides falling down a flight of steps. His condition is very grave. Firemen from the city together with a Murrayweather engine went out as quickly as the alarm was given, but the most they could do was to keep the flames from spreading to other buildings. The two buildings gutted were the grist mill and the distillery proper. The former building contained about 200,000 bags of grain and in the distillery were about 5,000 gallons of liquor in process of being manufactured. This was all lost. The loss is estimated at fully a quarter of a million and perhaps $200,000. The insurance will not cover the loss by fully $100,000. The distillery will be rebuilt as quickly as possible, in a new up-to-date way. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Capital programmes of moving pictures have been delighting circus-like crowds at the Nickel during the past week. "Rising hopes," in the shape of children of every age, have been taken by fond parents to witness the varied entertainment provided, and it is evident that the motion picture dramas and intensely funny farces are equally enjoyed by young and old alike.

In the programme beginning at noon today there is a fairy spectacle entitled the Witch Cave. It is one of those charming transformations of the stage which fairly captivate at each performance. While Fleming is one of those trouper series that at once testify to the enormous amount of labor and time that is being devoted in order to provide a moving picture loving public with really unique and sensational experiences. Every important incident in connection with whaling in mid-ocean is here shown from the "set sail" to the actual kill of this monster of the sea. The picture is a series of the bill entitled "Peashooters for the Army," "The Flat Dwellers" and the "Princes of Wales." The first two are of a humorous nature, and distinctly so. Some one thinks of some one in the title of the picture to be sung by Harry Austin for the first three days of this week.

BOSTON, May 11.—Captain John W. Mayhew was the star performer of the dual track meet, in which Brown defeated the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on Technology Field this afternoon by a score of 67-24 to 13-13 points. Mayhew won all four events in which he started and secured 20 points for his team.
