Has General Grabelaar and His Force Cut Off and Demands Their Surrender.

His Little Scheme to Capture a Train Load of Reinforcements Fell Through—Buller Has Advanced to Badfontein—Kruger and Steyn Preparing for Flight.

PRETORIA, Aug. 30.—Gen. Baden-Powell three or four days ago attacked Gen. Grobelaar near Warm Baths and then prepared to bivouac for the night.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The British steamer Masconomo, one of the Hogan line of steamers, arrived today from South Africa, stopping on the way at St. Helena and St. Lucia.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Under date of Belfast, Sept. 1, Lord Roberts reports: "I have today issued, under her majesty's warrant of July 4, proclamations announcing that the Transvaal will henceforth form a part of her majesty's dominions."

CAPE TOWN, Sept. 2.—The communication today to the assembly of Lord Roberts's proclamation announcing the annexation of the South African republic, which will hereafter be known as the Transvaal, was greeted by the opposition with silence and by the imperialists with prolonged cheering.

PRETORIA, Sept. 3.—Gen. Baden-Powell started for Cape Town Saturday.

SIR CHAS. TUPPER

Greeted With the Utmost Enthusiasm at Westville.

Stirring Speeches by the Opposition Chieftain, Mr. Bell, M. P. and Hon. Mr. Foster.

A Continuous Ovation Throughout Cape Breton—Sir Charles and Mr. Foster Will Leave Pictou This Afternoon for Charlottetown.

WESTVILLE, N. S., Sept. 1.—Westville was in great attire today to welcome within its hospitable bosom Sir Charles Tupper, who since Wednesday night has been the recipient of a most continuous ovation in Cape Breton, and Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

WESTVILLE, N. S., Sept. 2.—Sir Charles Tupper rested very comfortably last night. He had a long night of refreshing sleep and is fully recuperated. Tomorrow he will be one of the speakers at the Labor Day picnic in this town.

WESTVILLE, N. S., Sept. 2.—Sir Charles Tupper was returning from the meeting in a carriage, driven by Struan G. Robertson, whose guest he is, the horse took the blind stagers. The road was very dark and the team finally capsized, but before this had happened Mr. Foster was able to jump from the carriage without sustaining injury.

MILLTOWN NOTES. MILLTOWN, AUG. 30.—The report which reached your correspondent that Miss Fairhead had died was incorrect. She is slightly improved in health.

It was after six o'clock this evening when the train pulled in to Westville station. The town's fine cornet band was on hand, and a very large crowd of the opposition met to greet him.

The public meeting was held in the new hall completed store which Geo. E. Munroe is building. It is by all odds the most commodious place in town, having as arranged tonight a capacity of more than double that of any other building in Westville except the rink, and that is uninhabitable today, just as it was on the occasion of the last public meeting in Westville.

The cotton mill will close down for two weeks, beginning on Sept. 8, to allow workmen to complete the new dam.

PETITCODIAC NEWS. PETITCODIAC, Westmorland Co., Aug. 31.—Miss Alice Keith has returned home after a lengthy visit to Shediac.

HOPEWELL HILL. HOPEWELL HILL, Aug. 29.—Mr. Wetmore, local government engineer, was in the village today, and, in company with G. J. Osmann, M. P. E., was looking over the proposed route for a new road between Riverside and this place, along the edge of the marsh.

DIGBY. DIGBY, Sept. 1.—The town has had a great loss in the death of Reuben Cossaboom, superintendent of streets and waterworks. He died yesterday at 1 p. m., being forty years of age.

VIENNA, Sept. 3.—On account of the outbreak of the bubonic plague at Glasgow the Austro-Hungarian government has ordered a medical examination of all ships arriving from English ports.

TWO WEEKS OLD.

Latest Reliable News from the Chinese Capital Dated Nearly a Fort-night Ago.

Germans, Austrians and Italians May Remain in Peking After the Russians Withdraw—Complete Key to the Russo-American Mystery.

LONDON, Sept. 4, 4.10 a. m.—The latest reliable Peking date is now nearly a fortnight old. An undated despatch has been received at Vienna reporting that the allied troops marched through the imperial palace Aug. 28, but it was known that this date had been fixed by the allied commanders for a formal promenade.

There is no other news of any kind. The Hong Kong correspondent of the Standard telegraph says the Canton officials have been ordered to transmit all possible revenue to the north for war expenses, that all pay of officials from the viceroys down has been stopped during hostilities.

The Vienna correspondent of the Standard telegraph says he learns from a good source that the Germans, Austrians and Italians will remain in Peking after the Russians withdraw. Shanghai and Hong Kong despatches express the utmost astonishment at the idea of evacuating Peking.

The Daily News suggests editorially that Russia may have made secret terms in China behind the backs of the powers. The Standard expresses gratification at the explanation that the United States government does not approve Russia's proceedings.

The Daily Express publishes an interview with a New York Chinaman, Liu Chu Ah, now staying in London, who admits Li Hung Chang's "duplicity and rooted antagonism to western ideas," but thinks that the allies have no choice but to negotiate with him or to retire from China altogether.

Mr. De Blowitz, the Paris correspondent of the Times, asserts that the origin of Russian decision to evacuate Peking was her desire to frustrate the schemes of Emperor William and to correct the impressions produced by the Kaiser's speech attributing to Emperor Nicholas the initiative in the appointment of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee to the command of the international troops.

"Russia also desired," says M. De Blowitz, "to save France from the hard necessity of placing her troops under Count Von Waldersee. The United States were also much dissatisfied with the prospect of their troops acting under German orders."

"If you compare the Russian evacuation proposal with the American plan for beginning negotiations before Emperor Nicholas's arrival, and if you add to this the prompt adherence of France, addressed to the United States, you have the complete key to the Russo-American mystery."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—A despatch from Minister Conger was received by the state department today. It was chiefly interesting in being the first word from him since his despatch of about the 27th ult. referring to the proposed parade of troops through the imperial palace in Peking. Like that despatch, this is dateless as to Peking. The contents were not made public, but it was stated that it contained nothing materially changing the situation.

The lack of date led to a determination to take energetic steps by which all despatches hereafter coming to the state department from China will have the date clearly stated.

Two other despatches received today from China referred to the state of health of the troops, which generally is satisfactory.

It cannot be learned that there has been any marked advancement of the international forces from Peking. The plain indication is that the powers are acting upon the hint conveyed in the last note of the state department and are bringing all of their influences to bear upon Russia to induce her to change her mind as to withdrawing her troops. For some reason the authorities here appear to feel a growing confidence that this effort will be successful. It is noted as a fact of great significance that the proposition is being advanced to have Prince Ching return to Peking as the acting head of the Chinese government. The suggestion is made that the progress of this wave of reorganization while the international troops are still in Peking, promising, as it does, speedily to provide an actual defacto Chinese government with which the nations may treat without further doubt as to its strength, may solve the present problem and put the Chinese question in a fair way to final and satisfactory settlement. Much may depend upon the attitude of Russia in this matter, and the manner in which she treats this appeal from the Chinese notables may prove to be a test of the sincerity of her expressed desire to deal with the Chinese government as soon as possible.

PEKING, Aug. 22.—Chung Li, a member of Tsung Li Yamen, and prefect of police, visited the Austrian representative yesterday, who arrested him because of the Chinese official's complicity in the attacks on the legations. Sir Robert Hart, the director of the Chinese imperial maritime customs, has resumed charge of the customs and has re-opened the imperial ports.

TIEN TSIN, Tuesday, Aug. 25.—Three members of the Tsung Li Yamen, La Tung, Ching Hsin and Chung Li, it is announced here, are seeking to negotiate with the allies through Sir Robert Hart, the director of the Chinese maritime customs. There are four trains each day from Yung Ku to Yang Tsun.

The sinking of a small Japanese steamer interrupts river communication between Tien Tsin and Taku.

As announced in the despatch from Peking, dated Aug. 22, Chung Li has been arrested, and it is just possible he may be the "Prince Ching" referred in the Peking despatch of Aug. 21 as endeavoring to open negotiations with the allies, though there is a Prince Ching, father of the heir apparent, lord chamberlain of the court, and recently commander of the Peking field force.
