

ARROSTOOK, ME.

Further Evidence That Potatoes Are Way Up.

A Prosperous Farmer, Getting $50 A Load, compares Prices With Those in 1896.

(Cor. Bangor Commercial.) Up here in the northern part of Arrostook county, 200 miles from Bangor, the great potato crop is now on the move to the markets in all parts of the country...

"Prosperous time?" he says as he looked over his little book, "let me show you the difference between now and the year '96; at that time we were getting three barrels for $15 and 30 cents per barrel this same time of year when it took 20 barrels to pay for a barrel of flour..."

TERRIBLE DISASTER

Twelve Miners Killed and Many Others Injured.

OSKALOOSA, I. A., Jan. 24.—As the result of a terrible mine disaster at Lost Creek this afternoon, 12 dead are in an improvised morgue, and eight are in a temporary hospital. The dead are: Jos Gaspers, Frank Gaspers, Jim Stohal, Sylvester Creighton, Joe Berte, Andy Pash, Frank Secress, John Martin, John Biro, Mike Hraha, Jack Manley, Mike Fox, Jr., Mike Fox, Sr., Boone Fish, Russ Fish, A. MORE LOGS

To Be Diverted From St. John Waters to Past Branch.

If a plan which is now under way goes through successfully, and there is every reason to suppose that it will, the supply of the Bangor logs will be increased by from 5,000,000 to 10,000,000 feet of logs per year. This plan is nothing less than to bring the logs from Eastern Maine to St. John waters, over into Chamberlain lake and thence down the East branch of the Penobscot to Bangor.

HAVELOCK JOTTINGS.

A Sunday school convention under the direction of Field Secretary Lusk of the N. B. Sunday School Association, and Pres. A. B. Hubby of the same association, was held at Havelock on Monday afternoon and evening, Jan. 20. A very interesting and profitable afternoon session was held for S. B. workers. In the evening a concert was given by the choir of the parish of Havelock, with the following officers: Pres., C. F. Alward; vice-pres., John Branscombe of Cornwall; secretary, Miss Mamie Keith; executive committee, these officers, together with those of Lower Ridge and Miss Freeman Alward.

THE LATE MRS. WM. MACNAB.

WALLACE, N. S., Jan. 23.—The funeral of the late Mrs. William Macnab, who died on Monday at the age of 74, took place here today, and was largely attended. Rev. W. D. McIntosh, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Pugwash, officiated.

FAITH NO FACTOR

IN THIS MAN'S CURE.

Persuaded to try South American Rheumatic Cure it proved its potency. Seven years pains dispelled forever in twelve hours. I was Rheumatism victim for seven years, being confined to my bed for months at a time. I had no faith in medicine as I saw advertised, but I was persuaded to try South American Rheumatic Cure and inside of twelve hours after taking the first dose I was free from pain—three bottles cured me. J. D. McLeod, Leith, Ont. Sold by M. V. Paddock.

DEATH OF ALFRED MILLS.

Alfred Mills, a life-long resident of St. John and at one time prominently identified with shipping interests, died Friday, after a protracted illness, at his residence, Coburg street. He was a son of the late William Mills, well remembered by many citizens as their school teacher. In the "seventies" and early "eighties" the late Alfred Mills was a member of the firm of Mills & Jago, having extensive shipping interests. Among the vessels they managed were the barques Syrings and Veronicas, the latter now owned by Wm. Thompson, Col. Jago, and the brigantines Wanderer and Alice. In late years Mr. Mills devoted his attention to shingle, lumber and coal business. The deceased, who was never married, is survived by his mother, two unmarried sisters at home and two other sisters, one the wife of Kilgour Shives of Campbellton, the other, the widow of Col. Jago, resides at Fredericton.

A party of Indian boys and boys went out to the Kenebec mouth on Friday and caught a large number of smelt through the ice.

THE PHILIPPINES.

Civil Gov. Taft Gives His Views of the Situation.

Natives Are Rapidly Developing a Genuine Affection for United States Institutions.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—William H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippines, arrived in Chicago this afternoon from San Francisco. Owing to the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Herron, in Cincinnati, the governor denied himself to all callers except a few personal friends.

"The only answer I have to make to the ideas of individual observers who declare that the true condition in the Philippines is being concealed, or that we are hugging delusions of peace that can never be brought about, is that the government is concealing nothing and that its conclusions are not based on wild theories, but substantial facts."

"As a matter of fact," he added, "the natives are rapidly developing a genuine affection for United States institutions. The natives are rapidly developing a genuine affection for United States institutions. The natives are rapidly developing a genuine affection for United States institutions."

ENGLAND'S NEW ROYAL HOUSE.

Whitaker's almanack, the famous English year book which is almost as well known here as in its native country, has caused some sensation by recording King Edward VII. not as a ruler of the House of Hanover, but as the first British monarch to adopt the name of Saxe-Coburg, thus making the late Queen Victoria the last ruler of a line which has given to the British Empire six sovereigns.

CHILDREN CRY FOR CASTORIA.

THE GRAND DUKE AND THE PRISONER.

Grand Duke Carl Alexander of Saxe-Weimar is not noted for his intellectual acumen even if he is the son of a man who was the friend and patron of the great Goethe. He has a kind heart, however, and is easily moved by the misfortunes and unhappiness of others. Not long ago he visited one of the great prisons in the grand duchy and asked to see one of the criminals.

SMALLPOX IN ANNAPOLIS.

Another case of smallpox has broken out in Annapolis in the house adjoining the one occupied by Miss Hebb, the Salvation Army lassie, formerly of St. John, who has been ill with the disease for the past three weeks. The patient is a boy, thirteen years of age, named Ward, a grandson of Thos. Devers of Annapolis. Miss Hebb, who is now practically recovered, has had the disease in a very severe form.

SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd McMann of Brookville celebrated their silver wedding on Friday evening. About thirty of Mr. McMann's fellow clerks in the employ of T. McAvity & Sons marked the occasion by driving out to Brookville in the evening in Driscoll's buckboard, and presenting Mr. and Mrs. McMann with a handsome silver tea set of five pieces. A very pleasant evening was spent, speeches being delivered, songs sung and supper served. The party broke up by singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King.

MYSTERY OF 6-POUND NUGGET.

Man Who Found It in a Montana Gulch Won't Tell Just Where.

A gold nugget that weighed 32.48 ounces, Troy weight, was found at the assay office at Helena, Mont., Jan. 17. It was the largest piece of virgin gold ever received at the local assay office of the government, and probably one of the largest nuggets ever found in the world. Its exact value has not been estimated, but the experts said it would be about $1,400.

WEDDING BELLS.

St. John's church was the scene of a fashionable wedding at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Charles M. Boetwick, Jr., was united in marriage to Miss Helen May Jarvis, youngest daughter of W. M. Jarvis. The guests numbered about a hundred and were ushered by Arthur F. Hazen, P. D. Tilley, Guy Boetwick, and Dr. T. O. Behring. The church was filled by spectators. At two o'clock the bride arrived, and the bride, escorted by her father and attended by her bridesmaids and maids of honor, entered the church, where the groom and his groomsmen, F. W. Daniel, were waiting. The bride's dress was of cream satin, with chiffon trimming, white veil with orange blossoms. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Smith and Miss Vera Phillips Robinson. Miss Smith wore pink silk with chiffon trimming; Miss Robinson also wore pink silk, with overdress of point de spirite. Both wore black hats and carried bouquets of roses. The little maids of honor, Misses Kathleen Digby and Lucy Jarvis, nieces of the bride, were prettily dressed in pale blue silk, with large white lace bows.

BOLOGNA'S TOWER MAY FALL.

Bologna has been having a sensation in the rumor that its great leaning tower, the pride of the city, is weakening and may fall. This has caused so large an influx of visitors that it is said the hotel keepers may not be wholly guiltless in regard to the rumor.

HER PROMISED DOLL.

Little Girl's Delightful Anticipation More Than Realized. This is the story they tell of a cunning little five-year-old girl whose nurse had been promising her all summer a little cone doll when the family reached the city if she would be very good and obedient. This was a delightful promise, and the little girl was as good as a little five-year-old could be. Then the family came back to the city a little earlier than usual, and something interesting happened. A brand new baby carriage was brought home. It was a funny, red faced little creature, which only a loving mother and experienced nurse could possibly consider beautiful, but it was a great thing for the little girl, who had never before in her short life seen a real live baby.

THE COURTS.

The Merritt Bros. cases were on Saturday postponed until this morning at 10. Before the chief justice on Saturday, Allen O. Earle, K. C., and E. T. C. Knowles presented the petition of J. R. Woodburn for rent for the building now occupied by the E. C. Cowell Candy Co., Ltd. E. B. Ketchum, the liquidator, claimed that the rent had been paid by notes of the company. The matter was referred to the full court by Chief Justice Tuck. The amount involved is about $1,800. C. J. Coe appeared for the liquidator. In Mayes v. Connolly, on Saturday afternoon, Judge Gregory said he desired further time to prepare a considered judgment, and adjourned the case until 3rd March. The defendant's counsel were allowed until 10th February to file an argument. Attorney General Pugsley and J. E. M. Baxter for plaintiff, A. A. Stockton, K. C., and L. A. Gurrey, K. C., for defendant.

As he appeared to have no choice in the matter, the jailer said to him: "Would your serene highness like to see a mild or a desperate one?" "A desperate one," said his serenity, "so one of the life prisoners was brought into the room." "Why are you here?" asked the grand duke. "For parole," "You killed your father," returned the grand duke, "that was a shocking crime, and how many years do you expect to pass in this place as a penalty for your sin?" "I have a life sentence." "The grand duke's tender heart was touched. Taking some paper, he wrote as follows to the governor of the prison: "The last three years of Blank's term are remitted."

CAPT. BERNIER'S POLAR PLANS.

He Expects to Be Absent Four Years in His Search for the North Pole.

A press representative had an interview with Capt. E. Bernier, the Canadian explorer, who is organizing an expedition to the north pole. Since Capt. Bernier's last visit to England, when he lectured before the Colonial Institute in January, last, he has been in Canada, where he has secured the active support and co-operation of the Dominion government for his scheme. Capt. Bernier, who is devoting his services gratuitously, estimates the cost of his expedition at $150,000. His fund has already received $100,000, including a contribution of $12,500 from the Dominion government, $5,000 from Lord Brougham, $1,000 from Hon. R. T. Doherty, Canadian minister without portfolio, and $500 from the Earl of Hinto, the Dominion governor general. He has also received large gifts from Canadian ministers, members of parliament, merchants and others. Capt. Bernier has now come to London with the object of procuring from the English authorities the balance of $50,000 necessary for his scheme. The learned societies of Canada, including the Royal society of Ottawa, the Quebec Geographical Society, and also the Royal Geographical Society, have all given their sanction to Capt. Bernier's scheme, and the Dominion minister of public works recently in the house of commons stated that no man was better able to accomplish the object in view than Capt. Bernier.
