

All Over New Brunswick

CARLETON. WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Jan 18.—T. J. Boyer, proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, will put in the new line light, to take the place of the incandescent.

Thomas Love, one of the oldest residents of Carleton county, died at his home, Watson Settlement, on Monday, the 18th inst. He leaves two sons and two daughters. His remains were interred in the parish of Woodstock church cemetery on Wednesday. Rev. R. W. Teed conducted the services.

Special services are being held in the Methodist church this week.

Rev. C. T. Phillips, pastor of the F. C. B. church, left Monday for a visit to the lumber camps up the Tobique river.

Woodstock, Jan. 22.—W. F. Hunt, agent of the Merchants' Bank at Kingston, Jamaica, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allan Dibble. Mr. Hunt left for Halifax today.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fisher arrived home on Saturday after a two months' visit to Boston and Utica, N. Y. Mr. Fisher's health is much improved. Miss Connel also arrived home from Boston same day.

T. J. Boyer, proprietor of the Victoria hotel, has had the ceiling light put in his house. A test of the light was made for the first time on Saturday night, which proved satisfactory. Forty lights will be put in. E. W. Brown, who put in the light, are agents for the same in this town.

CHARLOTTE CO. ST. STEPHEN.

St. Stephen, Jan. 23.—The past week has been one of considerable activity among the politicians as a result of the meetings held at Milltown and St. Andrews, and addressed by Messrs. Emerson and Tweedie. Certain opinion candidates are anxious now to get on the government ticket. After canvassing important sections of the county they have ascertained that it will be difficult to convince the electors of the county that they should cast their votes against the present local government which has done so much for this district, merely for the purpose of running elections in the future on dominion issues. Charlotte will give the government a good support.

The funeral of Mrs. Martin Horace took place on Friday morning. A large number of people were present at the service in the church of the Holy Trinity. The interment took place in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

KINGS CO. KINGSTON.

Kingston, Jan. 23.—The basket party and dance held in Kingston Hall, last Tuesday evening was well attended and proved a decided success, about 30 couples being present besides a large number of spectators.

Wednesday evening last, January 18, was the occasion of a very pretty wedding when Mr. Horace E. Northrup of Kingston, was united in matrimony to Miss Annie M. daughter of Mr. J. H. Barre of St. Stephen.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 in Lower Norton church by the Rev. O. P. Hamington, rector, assisted by Rev. H. W. Lawright, rector of Kingston. The bride was accompanied by a beautiful bunch of white roses. The bride was attended by Miss Lily Dickson Northrup, who was also prettily dressed in white with hat to match and wore a lovely bunch of pink roses. The groom was suitably supported by his brother, Mr. Isaac H. Northrup, of St. John, and both wore white roses in their button-holes. After the ceremony was over the bride and guests proceeded to the home of the bride's parents where the congratulations were received, for which a beautiful supper was served. After spending a very enjoyable evening in social chat, and dancing, the many useful, handsome presents, the party broke up at 11 o'clock, a. m. when Mr. and Mrs. Northrup departed to their new residence at Kingston. Mr. Northrup last completed the purchase of his new cottage in time for his wife to enter her new home.

Mrs. Northrup "appeared on" at the Church on Sunday afternoon, accompanied by the bridegroom.

Deacon will spend this week at St. Stephen, when she will receive calls.

A number of young people from Kingston, Perry's Point and Jubilee were invited to a winter party at Mr. Ed Flewelling's, Perry Point, last Thursday evening, where a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling are noted for their genial hospitality, and their guests are always assured of a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Geo. J. Dodge, grand chief temple 109 of New Brunswick, visited Loyall Lodge last Friday evening. Mr. Dodge was accompanied by a number of others from New Brunswick Lodge. Invitations are out for a farmers' supper, to be held at Clifton Hall, by the Union Agricultural Society, next Friday evening.

NORTHUMBERLAND CHATHAM. CHATHAM, N. B., Jan. 21.—At the session of the municipal council on Wednesday, Conn. Betts reported on the Good Roads convention which he attended.

Conn. Morrison, from the committee to strengthen the hands of the minister of railways in the Canada Eastern matter, said it was considered, for some reason, that it was not necessary to go to Ottawa, and the delegates were not notified to go.

A committee was appointed to wire the bye-laws.

There was some discussion over the Fredericton and Maryville, numbering over one hundred and fifty, met at his home where a very enjoyable evening was spent in singing and social intercourse. Miss Ella Colter, organist of the Free Baptist church, presided at the organ. A table was spread during the entire evening with a beautiful repast furnished by the ladies. Dr. Colton was chosen chairman and Mr. Thomas Colter secretary, and in a short time they received from the friends the handsome sum of $670 in cash and goods to the amount of $15, which were presented to the Rev. G. W. Foster by the chairman, to which a suitable reply was made.

Mr. Russell Gillis has been the guest of Mr. Fraser Dunphy for a few days.

Miss Amber Agnew, daughter of Mr. Star Agnew, is now prostrated with measles.

Mr. James Yerxa has been very ill, but is now a little better.

Mr. Joseph McDonald of St. Mary's, was a guest of Mr. Wellington Sheppard over Thursday night.

FREDERICTON.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 20.—Bedford H. Fraser, a well known Prince William farmer, died at his father's residence at that place last evening. The deceased, who was 16 years of age, has been sick with consumption for some months. Besides his father and mother, one brother and two sisters survive him. Edward Fraser, of J. S. Nellis' hardware establishment, is an uncle of the deceased. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Ross at 10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Prince William. John G. Adams undertaker.

The amount for the city for 1898 was $47,250, and of this amount only about $35,000 were collected, leaving a balance of $12,250 still unpaid. The total amount of taxes collected during the year 1898 was less than $40,000, as against $44,000 in 1897, with the current year assessments at $50,000 less. It is very evident there is a lot of work for Treasurer Golding and his collectors in 1899.

The speedy stallion Calcastra, driven by John McCoy, and the fast mare Merry Mac, driven by Al Baker, had several heats, which conclusively proved to the many spectators that while the mare is fast and game, she is not in the stallion's class. It is said that the speedy pacer Harry also threw up the sponge to Calcastra a few days previous, over the same course.

There was a fairly large attendance of skaters at the Curling rink last evening. The attraction of the evening was the mile race between Sandy Stipple and Harry. The race was a close one, but Stipple won over the track alone. Stipple's time in the first mile was 3:08 and in the second 3:00. Harry's time was 3:10 and 3:05.

There was a rush to the curling rink at 7:30, and the race was awarded to Stipple. Stipple used the A. D. Fisher skate in the race last evening.

There was a rush to Harry Brathwaite, the well-known hunter and guide, is in the city. Mr. Brathwaite states that the past season has been one of the most successful hunting seasons for many years, and believes that the success which the majority of the American sportsmen will witness through them to come again next season and induce their friends to come.

Mr. George Upton has returned from the lumber camps on the Tobique. He says that the cut on the Tobique this year will not be more than 17,000,000 or 18,000,000. The cut last year was in the vicinity of 25,000,000. Upton has contracted for cut of Senator Baird's logs, about 1,500,000 feet.

Some of the local horsemen are endeavoring to get up a colts stake race to be trotted next fall. It is said that quite a number of owners of colts have consented to enter their works. Among the entries will be colts by such speedy sires as Montrose, Judge Wilks, Calcastra, Sporter and Oliver Wilks.

The funeral took place this morning of the young child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bart. The remains were conveyed to the cathedral, where service was held. Rev. Mr. Wadley officiated. Interment was made at Gardigo. Robert B. Adams had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Henry Lehr, of Hanwell, had one of the fingers on his right hand taken off yesterday, while working with a circular saw at his home there.

The Bachelors' ball will be held this evening at the Grand Hotel and will be one of the most brilliant yet held. It will take place probably about the close of the present month.

SOCIAL AT DORCHESTER.

Methodist Church Ladies Present an Excellent Entertainment.

DORCHESTER Jan. 21.—The social at Mr. McNaughton's last evening was a highly successful affair. A large number were present and a short programme consisting of readings, etc., was rendered. Refreshments were served during the evening. The net proceeds amounted to $120. This is the first of a series of socials that the ladies of the Methodist church intend holding during the coming winter to liquidate the debt against the church. N. A. Borden, of the penitentiary staff, is receiving congratulations on the new addition to his family. It is a boy and tips the scales at 12 pounds.

TO BE MARRIED.

Captain Bloomfield Douglas Will Wed Miss McDonald.

HALIFAX, Jan. 23.—Captain Bloomfield Douglas is to be married at Antigonish this week to Miss Maude McDonald, daughter of Customs Collector McDonald, of Sydney.

The Allan Liner Californian arrived at 8 o'clock this morning from St. John, proceeded to Liverpool via Moville, early this morning.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Servant Girl Does Away With a New Born Child.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—At the conclusion of an inquest today, Coroner McMahon issued a warrant for the arrest of Alice McNeill, a servant in the employ of Augustus Loeb, on a charge of murder.

Last week information was lodged at the detective department that Miss McNeill had done away with her new born child. The detective investigated her case and found the body in a box secreted in the cellar. An autopsy by Dr. Wyatt Johnston revealed that the child had died from wounds received—skull fractured and around the dead infant's neck was a tightly wound stout cord. After bearing the evidence of witnesses and the statement of the medical expert the jury brought in a verdict of murder.

BATTLESHIPS COLLIDE.

Great Excitement for a Time, but Little Damage.

DEVONPORT, Jan. 23.—The British first-class battleship Collingwood, driven by the strong current, today collided with the British third class cruiser Curacoa, driving a hole in the cruiser below her water line, sweeping off her bows and damaging a spar.

The Curacoa fled rapidly and began to list. A scene of utmost excitement followed on board, but the injury of water was finally stopped by collision mats, and a number of feet assigned the cruiser into the harbor, where she was docked. The damage to the Collingwood was not serious.

ADAMS POISONING CASE.

Report of Handwriting Expert Made Public.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The Evening World says: "The final report of Wm J. Kingsley, the handwriting expert in the Adams poisoning case, has been made to the police. The report shows positively that the person who wrote the request for a sample bottle of ketchup powder also wrote the address on the package of cyanide of mercury sent to Harry Cornish as bromo seltzer."

RUSH TO ATLIN.

Gold Hunters Are Again Going to the West.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 23.—A rush, almost equal to the Klondike rush at its zenith, has set in here for Atlin. It is said at the American consulate that the alien law recently passed by the provincial legislature will make little if any difference this year and that Atlin will be dug dry by next winter. All the Americans who want to get to Atlin before there the new law is enforced, be there before the new law is enforced.

KU VUNG CAPTURED.

Chinese Rebels Are on the War-path.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Daily Mail publishes the following despatch from Shanghai: "The An Hoi rebels, who, under the notorious desperado, Nui, re-enforced by rebels from the province of Ho Nan, attacked the city of Ku Vung on January 10, have captured it and ordered the execution of all the civil and military officials. They have also captured another city and district in the same province. The rebel sympathizers having opened the gates of the town. The rebels are now marching to besiege Shan Chuan."

HARBOR BOARD.

Returns on an Inspection of Atlantic Ports.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—Mayor Prefontaine, Chairman Mackay, and other members of the Montreal harbor board, have returned from their tour of inspection of Atlantic ports. The mayor said they had visited the works at New York, Boston, Baltimore, Newport News, Norfolk and Buffalo, and that he believes there were less drawbacks to making Montreal a great point of export than any place he has seen. The commissioners are all delighted with their trip, and believe they will put the information obtained to a good advantage.

DEATH OF ALEX. MILLER.

Truro Mourns One of Its Best Men.

HALIFAX, Jan. 21.—Alexander Miller, of Truro, one of the best known men in eastern Nova Scotia, died this morning. He conducted marine works in Truro for many years.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

They are always the best. This is a big yield of both profit and satisfaction will result if you plant FERRY'S SEEDS.

Most Rubbers are Uncomfortable

It is no wonder that rubbers which are not the same shape as the boot should be uncomfortable. It costs money to employ skilled pattern makers but the result is a satisfactory fit.

Each year the Granby Rubber Co. add new patterns to fit all the latest shoe shapes therefore Granby Rubbers ARE ALWAYS UP-TO-DATE.

They are honestly made of Pure Rubber. Thin, Light, Elastic, Durable. Extra thick at ball and heel.

Granby Rubbers wear like iron.

MARRIED AND DIED.

Crushed in the Woods—A Man Tells His Story.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Alex Gibson, a farmer of Barley, Que., died while undergoing an operation for amputation of his leg, crushed in the woods. Before death he confessed to priest Father Pelletier that he was not married to the woman who was the mother of his four children; the marriage ceremony was performed after which the man died.

ATTACKED BY A BURGLAR.

An Old Woman Has a Fight for Life.

KITTY, Me., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Elvira Turlon, one of the oldest residents of this town, is dying tonight from fearful wounds about the head and shoulders, received in an encounter with a burglar this afternoon, while Fred Parks, 22 years of age, who was seen to jump from the window of Mrs. Turlon's lonely house, is locked up in the jail charged with the crime.

BATHQUAKES AT ATHENS.

Fifty Children Injured in One Village.

ATHENS, Jan. 22.—There have been fresh earthquake shocks today in the province of the Poloponnese, in the town of Kyparissia, a number of houses, which were damaged by yesterday's shocks, collapsed this afternoon, injuring many. In one village fifty children were injured.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Sudden Death of a Lady at Chatham.

CHATHAM, Jan. 23.—On Thursday evening Mrs. Fred Robichaud, who had been shopping, was returning home, she fell on the sidewalk on Water street, opposite Mr. Beatts. She was carried to and died almost instantly. She leaves 10 children. Her husband was ill and they are in destitute circumstances.

SMALLPOX IN CANADA.

Ontario Board of Health Advised of a Case.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—The Provincial Board of Health, today, was advised of a case of smallpox in Kitley township, Leeds county. An officer was at once sent down, and every precaution will be taken to prevent the spread of the disease. General vaccination is ordered in Kitley and surrounding townships.

MILITARY INSTITUTE.

Annual Meeting Last Night Was Well Attended.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Military Institute tonight Lieut.-Col. Delamare, Queen's Own Rifles, was re-elected president and S. A. C. Greene, secretary-treasurer. The institute had a prosperous year financially and the membership increased from 341 to 351.

Held For Murder.

CANTON, O., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Anna E. George was taken into court today, for arraignment on the indictment for the murder of Geo. E. Saxton, the brother-in-law of President McKinley.

TO CURE TOOTHACHE IN A MINUTE.

Use NERVOL. One application cures it, no matter how bad. Equally good for Neuralgia and Headache. 25c. at all druggists.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS.

Has Been Made By the Joint High Commission.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—The Canadian members of the joint high commission expect to complete their labors at Washington and return home about the first week in February. There is good ground for believing that satisfactory progress is being made.

J. J. McArthur, of the geological survey, who was engaged in the Alaska boundary survey and who recently returned from duty in Yukon, left for Washington today in response to a summons from the prime minister. He will be consulted upon Alaskan boundary questions.

Nervous Dyspepsia

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean.

MAKE A TEST OF STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised to find that they are cured by these medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after. Nervous dyspepsia often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headache; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

PROF. HENRY W. BECKER, A.M.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour at mouth, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 25 Wall, N.Y. All druggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. Prof. Henry W. Becker, A.M., the well-known religious writer and editor of St. Louis, Secretary of the Mission Board of the German Methodist Church, Chief Clerk and Expert Accountant for the Harbor and Wharf Commission, Public Secretary for the St. Louis School Patrons' Association, and the District Conference of the Methodists of the M. E. Church, also takes an active part in the work of the St. Louis League, and writes on religious and educational topics for several magazines. How he found relief is best told in the two works:

"Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said, 'Try Stuart's Tablets.' I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimilation of food. I heartily endorse them in all respects, and I keep them constantly on hand."

ROCKEY AT HAMPTON.

Playing for the Donald Trophy on Saturday.

HALIFAX, Jan. 23.—The first game in the Hockey League for the Donald trophy was played on Saturday night, when the Quinneses, of Hampton Station, beat the Quinneses, of Hampton Station, 3 to 0.