Brier and Long Islands. A brush fire just back of the prosperous village of Westport, Brier Island, which had been smouldering in a dry bog for a couple of weeks, was fanned into a big blaze during Saturday night's fresh southwest breeze and swept through a bunch of alders, filling Grand Passage with dense volumes of smoke, which could be seen for many miles at sea. The church bells were rung and steam boats whistles were sounded in the harbor as a general alarm. Your correspondent sighted the fire from Sandy Cove. twenty-five miles distant, and has Cove, twenty-five miles distant, and has-tened by motor yacht down the Bay of Fundy to the scene of the configration. The flames were fought by men, women and children and all the teams on the island were continually employed hauling salt water to aid in quenching the fire. At the village of Freeport, just across Grand Passage, the citizens were out in searching parties hunting for Burgess Israel, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Israel, who was last seen near Hains Bros.' wharf about 11 o'clock Sat-urday morning. The poor little chay's body was found on the beach near an old blacksmith shop by Fred Churchill and Eugene Hains about 11 o'clock the same eevaning. The little fellow's face was cut, having probably fallen to the shore from the wharf while the tide was up. Dr. Bishop, coroner, did not think an inquest necessary. # Women's Secrets

W OMEN S DECRES There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but a secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. A. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That isw of these women have been disappointed in their ex-pectations is proved by the fact that ainsty-eight per cent. of altogether oured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-s- mil-lion women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women specialists in the treatment of women's disease. art. George Andrews of (Hamar, N.S., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many "linesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one allment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pils. That was indiced a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial. They have regulated my stomach and beweis. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."
