Unionist Lawyer on the Irish Abroad. Mr. Hilliam Fry, the eminent Irish solicitor, a Fryman in his sympathies, has been bearing very valuable testimony to the position of Ireland in the estimation of foreign nations and to the great power, influence, and success of the Irish abroad. Mr. Fry in 1907 visited Japan, and on his return home delivered a lecture in which he astonished his audience by relating that, the moment it was known that he was an Irishman, he was surrounded everywhere by Japanese gentlemen, with a knowledge of Irish politics which was as minute as it was amazing, and was asked most searching questions as to the success and progress of the Home Rule Movement. Mr. Fry made an ascent to the highest peak of the Andes of South America, and in lectures the other evening on his adventures expressed his pride and delight at the position of the Irish in South America. The acknowledged head of the cattle trade in Buenos Aires was a Mr. Healy, the grandson of an Irish tenant, evicted after the 'Black '43,' while he made the acquaintance of members of the O'Higgins and Devereux families, and of other Irish families occupying positions of dignity and affluence and reflecting lustre on the land of their ancestors which they even after the lapse of generations regard as their own.

LORANGER & PRUD'HOMME, Attorneys. Montreal, Feb. 3rd, 1909.

Vallieres and Victor Morin, all citizens of Montreal, that they will present a bill at the Legislature of Quebec, at its next session, to ask that the charter of the City of Montreal shall be amended: 1st. To reduce the number of aldermen from two to one for each ward; 2nd.
