granted with the consent of the Inspector to be appointed under this Act. person or persons appointed as hereinafter mentioned to inspect such Savings Bank, and upon such terms as to further security or otherwise as such Trustees and the said person or persons shall agree upon and approve, to grant further delay to any party to whom any such monies shall have been loaned as aforesaid, and the period to which 8 such delay shall extend, shall thereafter be deemed, for the purposes of this section, 10 the earliest time at which the payment of the monies to which it shall relate can be 12 demanded; and provided also, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent 14 the Trustees of any Savings Bank from demanding payment of any such monies as 16 aforesaid, at an earlier period than that at which they may be bound to demand the 18 same under this Act.

Proviso.

Rules, regulations, &c. contrary to this Act ropealed; and those hereafter made to be submitted for approval to the Inspector General.

VI. And be it enacted, That so much of 20 any the rules, orders and regulations of any Sayings Bank, made and fyled under the said 22 Act before the passing of this Act, as shall be inconsistent with the provisions of this 24 Act, shall be and is hereby repealed and made null and void; and from and after the 26 passing of this Act no rules, orders and regulations of any Savings Bank, nor any 28 amendment of any existing rules, orders and regulations, shall be fyled by any Clerk 30 of the Peace, or shall have any effect under the said Act, unless the same be first sub- 32 mitted to the Inspector General of Public Accounts, and by him approved and con-34 firmed, and it shall be his duty to approve and confirm the same provided they be not in-36 consistent with the said Act or with this Act. 38

Savings Banks not to allow more than per cent interest. VII. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful 40 for the Trustees of any Savings Bank to pay or agree to pay upon any deposit whe-42 ther made before or after the said time, a greater rate of interest than per 44 centum per annum, under a penalty of currency, for each payment of, 46