

he is, or if he shall be convicted of felony or of any other infamous crime; and by such conviction he shall lose the privileges granted to him by his diploma, and all proceedings by him shall be null and void from and after the date of such conviction.

3. The Clerk of the Crown for the Criminal Court by which such conviction shall have been pronounced shall transmit information thereof to the Secretary of the section in which the Advocate convicted of felony or of any other infamous crime practised, to the end that the name of such Advocate may be erased from the list. And the Secretary of such section shall transmit to the Secretary-Treasurer of the general Council the name of the Advocate so deprived of his privileges to the end that it may be erased from the general list.

Fees on admission to study or practise.

32. Over and above the fees hereinbefore mentioned, the following fees shall be paid to the Treasurer of each section previous to the examination of any candidate either for the study or the practice of the profession, viz.: for each certificate of admission to the study of the profession, twenty dollars; for each diploma, fifty dollars; and all sums received on account of the section shall form part of the general fund of the section.

2. The following sums shall be retained by the Treasurer, and shall form part of the general fund of the section, in case of the rejection of the candidate for admission either to the study or to the practice of the profession, viz.:—for admission to study, five dollars; for admission to practice, ten dollars. The Treasurer of the section shall return the balance to the candidate so rejected.

DISQUALIFICATION.

What shall be deemed.

33. Any member of the profession who shall practise a trade, or engage in commerce or traffic, shall be disqualified and incompetent to practise, and act as an Advocate, and his name shall be erased from the general and special lists, and all proceedings by him after such erasure shall be null and void.

2. And any student who, during his clerkship, shall have practised any trade, or engaged in commerce or traffic, or followed any occupation derogatory to the dignity of the profession, shall not be admitted to the practice of the profession.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION OF MEMBERS.

Annual subscriptions.

34. Until the councils of sections shall have otherwise provided by by-law, each member of the profession in each section shall pay annually on the first day of May, into the hands of the Treasurer, the sum of six dollars, which shall form part of the general fund of the section.

Rights of members.

2. And all members of the bar, paying such subscription annually, shall have the use of the library and books of their section, subject only to such rules as the Council of the section may enact for the regulation of the said library and the payment of the said subscription and for enforcing the payment thereof, even by disqualifying members in arrear, from voting at meetings of the section so long as they are in arrear; and the said Council is hereby authorized to make such rules, and from time to time to change the same as it deems proper, to increase the said subscription, and for other purposes.
