Town Police Investigate 70 Complaints

STREETSVILLE — Police investigated 70 complaints in June, the most serious a series of indecent telephone calls to local women.

A Brampton man was arrested in connection with the telephone investigation, the police department report, tabled at this week's council meeting, showed.

Nearly half of all cases — 32 — involved Highway Traffic Act Offenses. Five charges were laid under the Criminal Code.

Not one break-in was reported during the month.

Colored Panels Given Church By Daughters

PORT CREDIT — Flowers were given in memory of Mrs. Edna Clark, who died one year ago, in the Lyndwood United Church recently by her four daughters.

Mrs. Wilhelmine Ritchie, Mrs. Evelyn Elliott, Mrs. Hazel Carruthers and Mrs. Edna Baxter, the four daughters, also gave two colored glass panels for Lyndwood's new sanctuary.

Awaiting the arrival of the bulls from Pamplona, the senior girls of the Sisseton tribe at the Totoredaca Day Camp, perform the Mexican Hat Dance. Stepping out the dance are Debbie Harlow, Kathryn Warren, Wendy Carey, Kathryn Wornerford and Judy Harris.

Totoredaca Day Camp Is Exciting Place For Kids

COOKSVILLE — Camp Totoredaca, the Township Daycamp, got under way last week at its new site on Dixie rd., one and a half miles north of Highway 401. Approximately 250 children scrambled off the buses to become the responsibility of 21 counselors and four senior staff members.

Director Chief Bagoo welcomed the campers in general Indian style, and explained complicated procedures such as the Honour Point System, and the Paper Cup Ritual.

Caterine Nets Five Goals

Five goals by Clarkson's Steve Caterine and singles by Steve Hunt and Chris Costello were too much for Lakeview-Lyndwood in TPLA Tyke play. Ronald Brooks scored for the losers, to leave the final score at 7-1.

Ron Smiuders of Clarkson rounded out the scoring with an assist.

As camp gradually fell into its regular routine and counselors wound their way through the various potent plant-life of Junior Camp, campers appreciated a visit from two ambassadors from Tanzania on Wednesday afternoon. Overnight activities on the same evening included a backward baseball game, a treasure hunt, and a camp-fire sing-song, during which the former staff members Taha and Randu paid a surprise visit.

Strange sounds during the night testified to the operation of several Indian raids and supporting espionage; final proof was seen in the sleepy faces of both campers and counselors on Thursday morning.

Totally recovered on Friday, however, the camp rallied to a Spanish atmosphere which accompanied the afternoon bull-fight. The Pamplona-bred animal was imported by truck from near-by Toronto International Airport, and proved to be a colourful opponent in the ring.

The contest included Spanish dancing, and a presentation of flowers to the matadors by mantilla-veiled señoritas.

The afternoon ended with the crowning honours going to Janet Stewart, Lesley Crystdale, Janie Fraser, Martha Therbanuk, Mary Grundy, Eleanor Aylesworth, Elizabeth McClung, Debbie Cormack, Sandra Endacott, Lisa Woods, Kathy Lane, Susan Wyworski and Barbara Meak of the Micmac as Best Tribe of the Week. Peter Warren of the Pawnee was chosen Best Camper of the Week.

Evelyne McClintock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McClintock, Base Line, Streetsville, will be married July 23 in Trinity Anglican Church, Streetsville, to Carroll Lynn Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Norton, 12 McNaughton st., Malton. (Photo by O. Jolly.)
