

will be without seed and thus be in danger of being driven to add themselves to the unsettled Indian Population and others will only get provided in some burdensome & perhaps ruinous way. The calamity they suffer from the total want of crops, is so great that sympathy and help cannot do the harm to be otherwise dreaded.
And it would be a great boon not only to the people themselves, but indeed to the whole Province as nothing is more important than that the Indian Population should settle & maintain themselves by their own industry.

They have a hard fight
