Ottawa, November 28, 1916.

Mr. C. W. Kerr,
Barrister and Solicitor,
710 Lansden Building,
Yonge & Adelaide Streets,
Toronto.

Dear Mr. Kerr:

I thank you for sending me a copy of your letter which appeared in the "Globe" on Monday the 20th instant. Nothing could be more apposite than the quotation it contains from the article of Frederick Scott Oliver on "The Paralysis of a Nation".

Lest by any chance your communication may have escaped Sir Wilfrid's notice, I have ventured to send on the copy of your letter to him. It is just such truths that the nation needs most at the present time.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
