Dear Sir

Not having received a reply to my former letter, the need being so urgent at the present time, you will pardon me writing again I am sure.

We should be so grateful for your kind assistance especially at this time when we have more appealing to us than we can attend to, unless during the next few days the necessary comes in I am afraid some will be disappointed.

For what you can do we shall be very grateful,
Wishing you & yours much Joy & Blessing at this season.

Yours Sincerely

Chas. E. Godden
Adjutant
