Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th Instant; and in reply I have to inform you that the Department regrets that you should have had so much trouble with so little apparent result; and if the fact is an index of what the result of your efforts in the future will be, it would scarcely be worth while paying you for your services.

The Indian Act provides that one half of the fine, which runs from $50.⁰⁰ to $500.⁰⁰, imposed on parties for selling liquor to an
