

was the in surprise that night and was taking away a few things which would have dampened my ardor but seemed to have no effect on Alice. Her march certainly spoke very highly of her. Didn't it? Alice ought to stand a very good chance of being kind of position when you consider the number of people who have promised to do all they can for her. I wish to wonder if there are other of some kind. But I must near departure. What shall we do without you of our brothers? We all felt pretty badly tonight when we heard that Alice is almost gone to go on Thursday. It seems terrible now now. It would be rather a sell on him if he were not accepted after all his exertions.

He has been pretty busy and is terribly anxious to be off. Jack looks who was shot twice yesterday.

King, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie (MG 26 J 7 vol.3) Family Letters January 1902

National Archives of Canada Archives nationales du Canada

000006

A