AUGUST hath 31 Days.

Distinct and low-ly in their shade,
Was present all as now. The mountain rear'd
High o'er the mist that circled the low cliffs
Its rough majestic summit, like a throne,
Where he who rules the storm might sit, and rest
His thundering sceptre. On its side, the woods
Reveal'd their dim recesses; and below,
The copse and skirting meadow show'd the flowers,
'That, blooming there in rich luxuriance, fring'd,
The wide green mantle. Ev'n the shadowy rill,
Beneath those very branches, to our view
Gave its light surge, that, o'er the willow's stalk
Bent downward, rippled whiter mid the leaves!
