Arthur, 20th January, 1862. EXCELSIOR!

Special Notice to our Readers.

WHEN, just twelve nonths since, Mr. Strathmore succeeded Mr. Lurasia the proprietorship of the "Fergus Dispensary," and announced his intention of opening in Fergus a Drug Store which should rival the Grandest Drug Establishments of Western Canada, which the first-class Drug houses Canada - which the first-class Drug houses of Toronto and Hamilton might equal, but could not surpass—there were not wanting those who received the statement with some mount of incredulity, while others, again doubted how far the experiment, if carried out, would be successful.

A year has passed, and these promises have been redeemed. Fergus now po-sesses a Drug Store on which comment is unifecessary, since a single inspection must con-vince the most sceptical of its absolute per-fection in every detail. As to the success TOPOGRAPHICAL, STATISTICAL, A of the undertaking, that must be sufficiently obvious to all who are acquainted with the establishment, while those who are not may easily convince themselves of the fact by a single visit, when from early morning until late in the evening, they may observe such evidence of business as will leave little doubt on their mind upon this point, and this not through advertising, to which little attention has been paid, but through the undisputed superiority of the goods sold, and the unexampled reduction in price recently effected in every department. It will afford the Proprietor great pleasure to show any visitors over the whole Dispensary, which is undoubledly one of the most extensive and complete in the Province. From the most important article down to the most minute item, nothing is absent, nothing is wanting. Every Drug, Medicine, or Chemical which Science has made known as a remed-for man or beast may there be found. A the other departments of the business are proportionably complete; while in the Ge ral Department it is admitted by all that Strathmore has done more to break up the monopoly in Store Goods, and to reduce the price of Groceries, Stationery, Oils, Co-versity, the last said by competent Judges to be the finest building of its class in America.

met with, and the very liberal and extensive patronage he has received, during the past year. He offers his most earnest and sincere assurances that his whole time, his most ceasing efforts, shall be still as heretofore aim and object shall be their advantage and their approval. Now that he has removed to his present extensive premises, his stock and neral arrangements are on a proportionably Of a general pattonage, the price has been permanently fixed at $6 50, payable (only) on delivery of the map in good order and condition, handsonely colored, varnished, and mounted. Put up for the pocket at $5 50 ns 6 00. have an opportunity of supporting an enter prise and investment of capital in their midst that they will perceive the advantage of supporting home enterprise, in preference As to those who, from totally erroneous impressions, may still prefer to carry their surport to Guelph or other places, all that can be said is that they will simply waste their time, trouble, and money. H. Strathmore does not solicit patronage in any branch in which he is unable to offer advantages equal to any of the Guelph merchants.

2. DISTINCT DISPENSING DEPARTMENT .- The paration of medical prescriptions and recipes. under the personal superintendence of the proprietor, affords a guarantee of greater accurac and security in this important department than can possibly be attained in those establish-ments where a department requiring so much ments where a department requiring so much care and individual attention is mixed up with the general business, and but too often conducted by persons whose education in chemistry and pharmacy has been of the most inverfect description.
