

Now Is Your Opportunity To "Turn a Penny"

With very little effort you young people and those of you who are not so young can earn large cash commissions by securing new subscribers for

You have only to tell your neighbors how much the 52 issues are worth to you each year at the little cost of 3¢ per week.

Tell them that only and always the most up-to-date and reliable information obtainable is given on all subjects relating to life on the farm, such as

Agriculture, Live Stock, Veterinary, Dairy, Poultry, Horticulture and Home Circle

Tell them that every year we answer more than 3,000 questions for our subscribers through our "Question Columns" free of charge, and that subscribers are taking an increased interest in the magazine as evidenced by the constant increase in the number of questions asked. Tell them that you have secured subscribers for the magazine and have been greatly profited, and in many instances have even won prizes for the number of new subscribers the annual brings you.

Tell them also that we have recently inaugurated two new departments:

"Automobiles, Farm Machinery and Farm Motors" "Canada's Young Farmers and Future Leaders"

These departments will be of great value to the young people, and you should have a number of subscribers for the magazine for these departments.

Tell them that Home Magazine Department is a new department in the full year's subscription. The Home Magazine is a most valuable and interesting publication.

Ingle Nook, Hope's Quiet Hour, Beaver Circle, Short and Continued Stories

Home Magazine, Ingle Nook, Hope's Quiet Hour, Beaver Circle.

These departments will be of great value to the young people, and you should have a number of subscribers for the magazine for these departments. Subscriptions at $1.50 per annum may be sent with any month. You may also send a full year's subscription you send us. Special terms will be arranged with you for Canada.
