THE FARMER'S ADVOCATE

TRADE TOPICS.

The Donn Hollow Concrete-block Machine, manufactured and sold by The Jas. Stewart Mfg. Co., Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., simple in construction and moderate in price, and no power required in its working, has been four years in the market, and the makers in their advertisement in this paper, claim that every machine sold is doing good work. Write the company for catalogue.

MOUNTING BIRDS .- How to learn to mount birds is taught by mail by the N.-W. School of Taxidermy, 48J. Omaha, Nebraska, as intimated in their advertisement in this paper. Their offer to send free to applicants their book, "How to Learn to Mount Birds and Animals," should attract the attention of many people now that the hunting season is on. Write for the book, men-tioning "The Farmer's Advocate."

A stitch in time saves nine, and also avoids many breaks in harness. farmer cannot always find time to go to a harnessmaker when a repair is needed. The use of Myers' Lock-stitch Awl makes harness-mending an easy matter. It is constantly required, and always ready for use. Particulars can be had by writing to C. A. Myers Co., 6537 Woodlawn ave., Chicago, and asking for Book let 52. The awl costs but $1.00.

Buildings should always be set on solid foundations, but the importance of superior roofing also is worthy of consideration. Years of research and experiment have resulted in the manufacture of Carey's Asphalt cement, a roofing that is impervious to wind and water, and one that will retard heat and fire. For twenty years it has stood the test on roofs of all kinds in Canada and the United States. No tar or perishable materials is used in its manufacture. By sending a card to The Philip Carey Company, 112 Bay street, Toronto, and mentioning "The Farmer's Advocate," particulars can be secured.

REDUCING SWELLINGS.

The reduction of lumps or swellings is an important feature of home treatment. Many preparations are on the market for man and beast. Regarding Absorbine, Fred Chase, editor of "Postmaster and Carrier," Dallas, Texas, writes under date of October 8, 1907: "Dear Sir-I beg to thank you for the bottle of Absorbine Jr. My wife has been a sufferer for a year from malignant tetter. and found no relief either from physician's treatment nor so-called specifics. Absorbine Jr., however, is rapidly effecting a cure, all inflammation and roughness of the skin having disappeared.' Absorbine Jr. for mankind is an antiseptic, germicide and discutient, mild and pleasant to use. It is recommended for Varicose Veins, Varicocele, Hydrocele, and is said to remove wens, goitre, and all soft bunches from mankind. $1.00 a bottle at your local druggists, or post
