Mr. S. Nelson, North Sydney, N.S., writes:—"I have used your Laxa-Liver Pills, I was troubled with liver complaint for three years, and could get no relief. I was persuaded by a friend to try your remedy, and after taking one vial I got relief. After I had taken three more I was cured completely, and I have not been troubled since, thanks to your valuable medicine."

James J. Hill, at one of the Conservation Congress banquets in St. Paul, told a railway story.

"When sleeping cars first came in," he said, "the bedclothes in the berths were very scanty. On one of these early cars one night, after everybody had turned in and the lights were low, a loud voice called from an upper berth:

"Porter, got a corkscrew?"

"The porter came hurrying down the aisle.

"Boss," he said, in a scandalized tone, "we don't allow no drinkin' in the berths. It's against the rules."

"Oh, it ain't that, porter," the voice answered. "I just want to dig out a pillow that's sort of worked its way into my ear."

HE KNOWS WHAT FIXED HIM UP

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured S. D. Vickar's Lumbago.

He suffered three years, but the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy made short work of his trouble.

Edenbridge, Sask., Dec. 12.—(Special).—"It was one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills that fixed me up." This is the cheerful answer Mr. Sam. D. Vickar is giving his inquiring neighbors in this district. Everybody around here knows that for three years he has been suffering from Lumbago. Now he's strong and well again.

"My Lumbago developed from a cold," Mr. Vickar goes on to say. "My head would ache. I was always tired and nervous. I had a bitter taste in my mouth in the morning, was troubled with dizzy spells, and was always thirsty. The doctor told me I had Lumbago, but did not help me very much. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills went straight to the root of the trouble. They cured his kidneys. The cured kidneys strained the urea acid out of the blood, and Mr. Vickar's Lumbago vanished. Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure sick kidneys. They never fail to and vice versa. Long rest and repeated blistering form a standard treatment for bog spavin. Clip the hair off the part affected, and tie the head so the horse cannot bite the part. Rub well with an ointment made of two drams each of biniodide of mercury and cantharides, mixed with two ounces of vaseline. Two applications, one each day, should be made. Then wash on the third day and rub with sweet oil. Turn the animal in a roomy stall, and oil the hock daily until the scale comes off. Then tie up and repeat treatment.

5. The common cause of thrush is the filthy condition of the stable in which the animal is kept. At first there is only an increased moisture in the cleft of the frog, accompanied by an offensive smell. After a time a considerable discharge takes place—thin, watery, and highly offensive, changing gradually to a thicker puriform matter, which rapidly destroys the horn of the frog.

Treatment.—Clean the foot thoroughly and pare away ragged or detached tissue; wash with warm soft water and castile soap and keep in a clean stall, dry well and apply a lotion consisting of zinc, six drams in a pint of water, or apply dry calomel, pressed in on a pledget of tow.

6. Your description of the soil gives us no adequate information by which to decide what fertilizer is needed. A good deal depends upon the crop to be raised, and, as to this, we are pretty well in the dark. If it is grain you need for your hogs, corn is the crop to grow, that is if it matures satisfactorily for husking in your section. If you will have grain and wish something to help it out, try pumpkins and sugar beets, part of the field in each. If you use fertilizer for these crops, you had better try a complete formula as 100 pounds per acre nitrate of soda, 300 pounds acid phosphate, and 100 pounds muriate potash. The nitrate of soda should be applied in two dressings, one just before sowing the crop, and one about three weeks later.

HOLSTEINS AT AUCTION.

The advertisement on another page of the great sale of pure-bred Holstein cattle, to take place on December 28th, the property of Brown Bros., of Lyn, Ont., at their Lyndale Stock Farm, near Lyn Station, G. T. R., four miles from Brockville, Ont., should be of special interest to breeders of the black and whites, and indeed to dairymen generally. It is seldom indeed that so choice a selection of the great milking breed is offered at public sale, and the present aspect and prospects of the dairy industry are such as to encourage the keeping of cows of the milky mood, and which give satisfactory returns for their keeping. The advertisement gives official-record figures which back up what is claimed for the breeding of the herd. Those interested will do well to send for their catalogue.
