but the back, so I pushed my bundle aboard and stood on guard. A young gentleman came on right after, and the surprised look in his face, led me to say hastily, "I know I am out of place here, but my parcel was rather bulky, so I thought I had better stay outside." The back of the car filled up—such a jam—I thought I would never get off when my time came. One man offered to hold my bundle for me until I got off, but I swung it off myself. I walked another block and a half, then carried the turkeys up to the third flat, and was not at all unwilling to give them up into the hands of their owners. Next day, as I helped to eat the largest one, I felt that I had earned my Christmas dinner.

Gems.—One egg, a dessertspoon or two of butter, 3 cups Graham flour and 1 cup white flour sifted with 2 teaspoons baking powder, milk to make a stiff batter. Bake in "pate-pans" in a quick oven.

Muffins.—1½ cups flour sifted with 1 teaspoon salt and 1½ teaspoons baking powder. Add 2 tablespoons sugar. Beat an egg and add to it 1 cup milk, then pour on dry ingredients and beat to a batter. Last of all beat in 1 tablespoon melted butter. Have gem pans buttered and very hot. Fill two-thirds full, and bake in a hot oven 15 or 20 minutes.

Rock Cakes.—Three small cups flour sifted with 1½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon ginger, 1 large teaspoon sugar. Rub in 1½ dessertspoons butter, and the same of lard. Beat an egg well, and add to it 2 drops lemon essence and 2 tablespoons milk. Mix to a very stiff paste with a fork, and bake in little, rough heaps on a tin in a very hot oven.

Potato Cake.—Two cups mashed potato, 1 cup flour, a little salt, 1 egg, a very little milk. Roll out, cut into cakes, bake, and serve very hot with butter.

Johnny Cake.—Two cups corn meal, 3 cups flour, ½ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 level teaspoons baking powder, all sifted together. Break an egg into 1 pint cold water, beat together, then add dry ingredients. Last of all, beat in 3 tablespoons melted butter, and bake in a fairly quick oven.

Gingerbread.—Two cups molasses, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, ½ cup butter, 1 beaten egg, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon ginger, flour to make a thick batter. Bake in a rather slow oven.

Jelly Roll.—One egg (not beaten), ½ cup sugar, ½ cup sweet milk, 1 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder. Put all in a bowl and stir (not beat) until the batter is smooth. Grease a pan, then dredge with flour. Spread the batter on to a very thin sheet, and bake a few minutes. It must not be crisped. Turn out on a cloth, spread with jelly or jam, and roll quickly. Put the cloth around to press the roll into shape.

Coffee Cake.—One cup light bread-sponge, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup melted butter, ½ cup warm sweet milk, 1 egg, a little salt. Mix down with flour, not quite so stiff as for bread, let rise over night in a warm place. In the morning, roll out and put in a greased pan.
Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon, let rise and bake.
