The Simpson Catalogue For Spring

SEND US YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS NOW, AND SO BE SURE YOU ARE ON OUR MAILING LISTS

THE SPRING AND SUMMER CATALOGUE of The Robert Simpson Company for 1906 will be a beauty. No home in Canada where the privileges of the mails exist can afford to be without it. It describes and illustrates almost everything useful in domestic life, and quotes prices in each case which will cause you pleasant surprise until you grow accustomed to the economy of doing business with this store. Our mail-order customers extend from coast to coast. We send goods to Cape Breton, and we send goods to the Yukon. We have one of the finest stores in Toronto and another in Montreal. We prepay freight on $25 orders and upwards as far as Winnipeg. Send us your name and be sure of our Catalogue, as soon as it's ready.

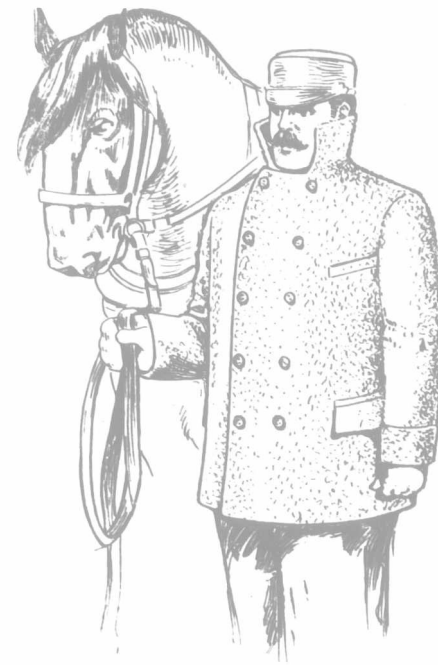

To make it definitely worth while writing now—to-day, we offer FARMER'S ADVOCATE readers two bargains—a separate skirt and a man's reefer which we will send them on receipt of this clipping and the price.

$4.80 Skirt Postpaid for $2.70

S-348—Separate skirt of good wearing English Cheviot, in black or navy, made in seven gores with inverted pleat back, the two side gores being trimmed with wide strap and side pleats; supplied in lengths from 37 to 42 inches, waistbands 22 to 39 inches. Postpaid at..... $2.70

A Man's $6.50 Reefer for $5.25

The driver, the walker, the skater, the active winter-time fellow, whatever his occupation, likes the freedom of a pea-jacket. Warm, thick, wind-proof, storm collar, snug light, comfortable, for early spring after a fur coat gets too hot and heavy, a freeze reefer fills the bill exactly. Here is a good one and a cheap one.

Men's Extra Heavy Frieze Winter Pea Jackets

—made double breasted with high storm collar to button close up at throat, extra quality warm tweed linings, size 36-44. Regular $6.50. Special.....$5.25
Add 50c. for postage or express.
